WHAT IS AN EPIC LIFE?

having fifteen minutes of fame?
being a YouTube millionaire?
having a bajillion followers on social media?
or something more?

This year our summer camp will be EPIC as we study the life of the one person who truly lived an EPIC life—Jesus Christ. He never made a mistake or a misstep, never wasted a moment, never needed to edit his Facebook feed, was followed by millions but never let them determine his course, changed every life He touched. Changed history. Wants to change your future.

A WEEK OF CAMP AT CUMBERLAND YOUTH CAMP WILL HAVE:

EPIC FUN — From team activities to individual initiatives, every day will be packed full of exciting and energizing experiences. Classics like human foosball, giant swing, laser tag, swimming and fishing will be joined by our newest activity—the zip line!

EPIC FOOD — This is not your typical cafeteria food. Food you want to eat. Served hot three times a day in our dining hall.

EPIC FRIENDS — Camp is a great place to find a life-long friend. You won't get lost in the crowd here. You will find someone (or maybe several someones) enough like you to make you comfortable but different enough to make you better.

EPIC FOCUS— We are a church camp. We talk about Jesus. A lot. Come and meet Him, or get to know Him better. He will make your life EPIC.

DRESS CODE:

Modesty is an important way that we honor God and show respect for ourselves and each other. Even good people may disagree on specific standards and practices, but we have chosen to model and encourage appropriate dress.

Campers are very active. Clothing that is too tight or loose is not conducive to our level of activity. So, we have adopted the following standards:

All parts of underwear must be covered (including bra straps, waistband of boxers, etc). Midriffs must be covered.

Oversized arm holes on T-shirts or tank tops, or large cutouts on shirts or pants are not allowed on boys or girls.

Short shorts are not allowed. The shortest part of shorts must be longer than the camper's fingertips when he or she is standing with hands to the sides. Any clothing that requires constant adjustment (pulling down or up, tugging at seams or straps) should not be worn at camp.

We no longer require one-piece swimsuits for girls. However, campers may be asked to wear a t-shirt over their swimsuit even while swimming if the suit is too revealing. Instead of a swimsuit cover up, we wear our clothes over our swimsuit when moving to and from the pool. Clothing that is revealing when wet shouldn't be brought to wear to and from the swimming area. We wear our swimsuits under our clothing during afternoon activities as many of our activities offer the opportunity to get wet.

Clothing with off-color or morally bankrupt advertising is not allowed.

PLEASE NOTE:

This dress code should not pose a financial hardship for parents. Please do not send anything "NEW" to camp. Clothing (including shoes, socks, and towels) may be damaged, lost, or destroyed during camp. For most campers, clothing allowed at school will be appropriate. The director reserves the right to require any camper to change his or her outfit if considered inappropriate. The camp also reserves the right to discharge any uncooperative or non-compliant camper.
