Melony Hill has been an entrepreneur for the past 11 years. During that time period, she switched fields of interest multiple times.

These days she is living her dream life of being a writer, speaker and mental health advocate. Not only is Melony a 3X self published author, but also a paid blogger and writer for multiple independent magazine. She runs an indie talent promotion and small business resource company as well.

Melony started Stronger Than My Struggles in 2017 to assist others in overcoming their struggles with emotional issues, self esteem and entrepreneurship. They said she couldn't do it, though legally disabled, Melony has found success many times over.

Stronger Than My Struggles

*Speaker * Mental Health Advocate * Life Transition Coach *Entrepreneur

Once counted out by society due to the obstacles she had to overcome and challenges she faces daily, Melony has proven that she is a survivor. Melony feels it is her life mission to travel the world sharing her story, helping people heal and grow, whether in their personal lives or business. From a life of promiscuity on the street, to the life of a model and entertainer, Melony was caught up in a life that wasn't meant for her and she knew it. Diagnosed in 2010 with PTSD, Depression, Anxiety Disorder and Dissociative Identity Disorder, Melony was declared legally "emotionally disabled".

Sapphire's Spotlight on Talent

A Place Where Talent Speaks For Itself

http://www.sapphirespotlightontalent.com

Being in the entertainment field myself as a model, writer and video personality I've learned how important it is to have viable platforms to expose your talents to the world.Too often, we see sites focus on those who are already in the limelight, eager to get numbers. Myself, I love indie and up and coming talent and realized it was my mission to give them a place to shine like the stars they are or soon to become. Through Sapphire's Spotlight on Talent, I aim to be a one stop shop for indie talent and up and coming entrepreneurs who have businesses that cater to the creative arts.
