

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

November 12, 2015

To Whom It May Concern,

I had the pleasure of meeting Mykesha Robinson two years ago when she worked as the Executive Director of the Miss Sacramento County Pageant. Mykesha and I worked together on multiple occasions bringing people in through the Miss Sacramento County Pageant to give them a taste of California politics from the Governor's Office perspective. Mykesha always felt strongly that government should be accessible and seen firsthand and proved to be an asset to the Miss Sacramento County Pageant to make that direct connection.

I have also known Mykesha in her capacity to give back to the community. She facilitated the donation of evening gowns to the California Department of Developmental Services during the holiday season last year.

I have admired Mykesha's ability to make connections with people and her passion for government. It is my pleasure to recommend Mykesha Robinson. If there are further questions regarding Mykesha, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Williamson
Deputy Director of External Affairs
Office of Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr.
