EXPERIENCE

Internship

Titan Publishers (2016)

Interning for seven weeks at Titan Publishers' comics and magazine department. This involved using hard skills in order to produce advertising posters to be printed inside mainstream comics and magazines, as well as internet based media. Working with a team of designers and editors to create efficient designs within deadline schedules.

Storyboard

Award Winning Short Film

I entered into a project to draft storyboards for a short film project entitled FlySpy, directed by award winning director Dan Smith. I got chosen to work in a team of three, in which to produce storyboards for various scenes. Completed project within deadline, and was credited in the film.

Exhibition

Children In Need Charity Auction

I was involved in the marketing and advertising of an auction exhibition. Working in a team, I set up social media links, posters, flyers and promotional material. Event was curated in order to raise funds for Children In Need.

Voluntary

- Richmond Avenue Primary School
- Horndon-on-the-Hill Primary School

I was approached to go and help in primary school during an 'Art Week'. I was to teach key stage one pupils various skills and techniques in traditional image making. Helping out throughout the day, and create demonstrations to encourage the pupils.
