

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE, GIFT OF A LOVING GOD

The apparitions of Our Lady of Guadalupe in 1531 transformed the traumatic birth of the New World and charged the Americas with new energy to spread the Gospel. Since then, she has been long revered throughout the world and today stands as a symbol of unity, love, and the new evangelization. Join us in exploring the historical context, the story of the apparitions, and the symbols in the tilma of Guadalupe in this presentation by Raymond Uribe.

Monday, December 3, 2018, 7:00 to 8:30 pm (This presentation is in English.)
