

In 2017 our movement recovered $4.1 BILLION IN DIVESTMENT WINS

January California	1. University of California terminated $475 million worth of contracts with Wells Fargo due to powerful organizing by Afrikan Black Coalition supported by Enlace. The University of California (UC) retracted a $300 million line of credit and a $150 million interest reset contract with Wells Fargo. This follows the termination of the $25 million commercial paper contract with Wells Fargo by the UC in November of 2016.
February Alameda, CA	2. The City of Alameda divested $36 million from its accounts at Wells Fargo for the bank's role in financing the Dakota Access Pipeline and private prisons.
February Seattle, WA	3. The City of Seattle divested $3 billion from major prison lender and Dakota Access Pipeline financier, Wells Fargo.
April Portland, OR	4. The City of Portland ended all corporate investments due to intersectional organizing for prison divestment, indigenous rights in Palestine and the U.S., and fossil fuel divestment. The City committed to terminate its banking contract with Wells Fargo and to conduct a feasibility study to create a municipal bank. $539 million divested.
April Princeton, NJ	5. Princeton Private Prison Divest (PPPD) pressured the university vice president to state the endowment has not and will not invest in private prisons, and that a resolution to make that binding may be brought forward.
May Berkeley, CA	6. Berkeley City Council moved forward in divesting from Wells Fargo and developing new criteria for socially responsible investing and banking. $10.3 million divested.
May Washington, DC	7. GetEQUAL's #RevoketheRainbow campaign pushed the National LGBTQ Task Force to reject corporate sponsorship from Wells Fargo across the organization, including the annual Creating Change conference. However, National LGBTQ TaskForce is retaining Wells Fargo as the presenting sponsor of the Task Force Gala-Miami.
June New York, NY	8. New York City's pension system was the first in the nation to fully divest from direct investments in private prisons, dumping about $48 million worth of stock and bonds from GEO Group, CoreCivic Inc. (CCA) and G4S.
October Philadelphia, PA	9. Philadelphia Board of Pensions and Retirement fully divested $1.16 million from private prison companies CoreCivic, GEO Group, and G4S.
October Washington, D.C	10. The Supreme Court denied a petition by private prison corporations seeking to block the release of government documents about their immigration detention practices. The Freedom of Information Act case was originally brought by the Center for Constitutional Rights (CCR) and Detention Watch Network (DWN). The Supreme Court's decision let stand the federal district court ruling in July 2016 stating the government must release details of its contracts with private prison corporations.
October Sacramento, CA	11. Responding to years of organizing by immigrant communities, California Governor Brown signed into law SB 29, the Dignity Not Detention Act . The Act and campaign are critical steps towards ending for-profit immigrant detention and the criminalization of immigrants in California, and provide a model for other states to follow.
October Washington, DC	12. Georgetown University Students for a Radically Ethical Endowment (GU F.R.E.E.) pushed the university to state that going forward the university will not own investments in private prisons and will encourage its external investment managers to avoid investments in these companies.
October Stanford, CA	13. Stanford University Prison Divest pressured the University to publicly state that they have no prison investments, and to initiate a full review of the Investment Responsibility policy and procedures. SU Prison Divest continues to pressure Stanford University to divest from prison investors and profiteers.
November Annandale, VA	14. National Korean American Service & Education Consortium (NAKASEC) moved $500k from Bank of America into a local Korean bank as part of the Interfaith Bank Boycott.
November Fairfield, OH	15. Glenmary Catholic Priests moved $300k from Bank of America and Wells Fargo to a local credit union as part of the Interfaith Bank Boycott.
November Washington, DC	16. Franciscan Action Network (FAN) stopped banking with Bank of America as part of the The Franciscan Action Network moved $22k from Interfaith Bank Boycott.