

RON RUBIN

Originally from Winnipeg, Ron holds Bachelor degrees in Psychology and Sociology from the University of Manitoba. He studied acting at the Neighbourhood Playhouse in New York and has performed with Second City as well as having toured North America as a featured 'Stand-Up' performer.

Ron has been the voice behind countless award-winning national television and radio commercial campaigns, including Pepsi, McDonalds, Tim Hortons, Nestles, Nissan, A&W, Kraft and Air Canada. More recently, he has voiced campaigns for Chrysler, Red Bull, Black Diamond, Kellogg's, Voltaren, Walmart and Cadbury's.

Ron has also created and voiced hundreds of cartoon characters in countless animation series. Among his notable credits are leading roles in the Emmy Award winning Beetlejuice cartoon, Marvel Comic's X-Men and Avengers, Babar, Arthur, C.O.P.S., Care Bears, Stickin' Around, Police Academy, Turbo Dogs, Angela Anaconda, Tales from the Cryptkeeper, Scaredy Squirrel and Sailor Moon. Ron has worked with the top directors and elite production companies in the world of animation including Stan Lee, Tim Burton, Howard Morris, Disney, Warner Bros., Nelvana, Imagination Films, Breakthrough, Corus, Paramount, DIC and Marvel Entertainment.

He has made guest appearances at numerous Comic Cons including Anime Expo (L.A.), Fan Expo (Toronto), Anime Revolution (Vancouver), Central Canada Comic Com, Anime North, and many more.

Ron has lived and worked in New York and Los Angeles - he currently resides in Toronto.