IELTS scam is common knowledge among IELTS tutors

INTRODUCTION

Ok, so, IELTS sucks. It's a stupid test that governments use to control immigration. Unfair, I know. However, before we get depressed and off topic, let's understand what IELTS is. Yes, it's a test to determine your English level for visa purposes, of course. Unfortunately, and I feel this is a pity, it's also a business, and if you're anything like me I don't trust big business. Now, if you understand that, understand it's bad business for IELTS if you pass the test the first time. Yes, let me say that again. It's bad business for IELTS if you pass the test the first time. So that causes a few things. One, the sample answers you get from many books and some online blogs will be misleading in terms of structure, key vocabulary and what is needed to understand how to pass this silly test. That's because IELTS wants you take the test again or buy the latest version of their book.

Most people must take two or more IELTS tests

IELTS test 1: To earn an international student visa. (This is easier)

IELTS test 2: To qualify for skilled immigration. (This is the major scam)

A very small percentage of people who take an IELTS test to earn a student visa will earn a set of band scores that will also qualify them for immigration. Most of these people who do earn such scores will need to take another IELTS test after they graduate. To maximize profits, IELTS only validate your Test Report Form for two years. If your application form states that you are taking the test to earn an immigration visa, IELTS will most likely fail you repeatedly (six or more times).

How the scam works: IELTS tests for student visas

38 of Australia's 41 universities are owners of the IELTS exam:

<https://www.idp.com/global/aboutus/companyoverview>

Australia's universities set low IELTS entry scores for their courses so that they can attract as many full fee-paying paying $$ international students as possible.

If your IELTS examination paper is marked by IDP Education Australia:

If your IELTS application form indicates that you plan to “study at university in Australia”, you are more likely to receive a fair set of examination scores when you take an IELTS test. Australia's universities have a financial interest in seeing that you earn a student visa and study in Australia and not another country.

How the scam works: IELTS tests for immigration

The Australian Government sets IELTS scores much higher for Permanent Residency (P.R.) visa applications so that they can deny most international students a P.R. visa. The Australian Government loves receiving tuition fee money from international students and wants most of these students to leave Australia after they graduate.

If you take an IELTS test for immigration purposes, IELTS do not view you as their customer. IELTS view Governments as their customers, especially the Canadian Government which only accepts CELPIP and IELTS tests for immigration.

IDP Education (IELTS) repeatedly use examiner fraud to fail most people who take the IELTS exams for immigration purposes. The more times that you fail the IELTS test, the more money that IDP Education earns. Each time you fail the test, IDP Education earns $330.

IELTS is managed by a wealthy corporation

IDP Education Australia Limited is a highly profitable profit-maximization corporation that is listed on the Australian Stock Exchange. Most Directors on this board have no background in teaching or education service delivery.

The more times that IDP Education fail your IELTS exam, the more IELTS exams you need to take. More IELTS exams = more profit for IDP Education.

The more times that IDP Education fails your IELTS exam, the higher their stock price rises.

IELTS failure rates match IDP stock price

The more times that IDP Education Australia fail your IELTS exam scores, the more profit they earn and the higher their stock price rises.

IELTS's application form demands that you tell them why you are taking the test. After the exams are graded, IELTS's senior supervising examiners reduce 'raw' marks to ensure that only a very small percentage of test-takers may receive bonus points for immigration to Canada and Australia.

IELTS are the worst examiner fraud cheats

IELTS collects more personal data than any other English language testing company.

Avoid IELTS and Cambridge English tests:
They are owned by the same company.

Judges air concerns about English tests in visa cases

BERNARD LANE

TheAustralian | 12:00AM July 13, 2011

Mr Mohamad had taken 18 IELTS tests. For his visa he needed a score of at least five in each of the speaking, listening, reading and writing components.

He had attained that score in each component -- but never in the one test.

<http://www.theaustralian.com.au/higher-education/judges-air-concerns-about-english-tests-in-visa-cases/news-story/9ec3e324b7c2362ee07da97bf27551aa>

“but never in the one test”

IELTS may keep failing you by 0.5 for one skill

Skill	Test 1	Test 2	Test 3	Test 4	Test 5	Test 6 etc.
Reading	8.5	8.5	8.5	6.5	8.5	8.5
Writing	8.5	8.5	6.5	8.5	6.5	8.5
Listening	8.5	6.5	8.5	8.5	8.5	6.5
Speaking	6.5	8.5	8.5	8.5	8.5	8.5

Many P.R. visa applicants require a score of 7.0 or higher for all language test skills and they need to earn this on the same test taken on the same day. To make sure that you fail many times, IELTS may award you scores like this. Earning one 6.5 band score = fail.

IELTS use blackmail and extortion to earn $

If you want IELTS to check your exam scores to make sure that there is no clerical error, you must pay a “service fee” of circa USD$175:

<http://idpielts.me/results/request-a-re-mark/>

IELTS may cancel your Test Report Form without offering a reason:

<https://www.ielts.org/-/media/pdfs/application-form.ashx>

IELTS may award you a score of zero, even if your answer is perfect:

https://takeielts.britishcouncil.org/sites/default/files/IELTS_task_1_Writing_band_descriptors.pdf

IELTS allow you to pay them another $330 to sit another test if these criminal policies inconvenience your vulnerable situation as an immigrant.

IELTS is a flawed, fake English language test

IELTS does not test your English language skills.

IELTS is a complex, deeply flawed general knowledge test about Western culture that sets test-takers up to fail to maximize profits.

Please say no to billion dollar scams committed against Asian persons and persons from other nations. It is not OK for:

- IDP Education to conduct IELTS examiner fraud to maximize profits.
- Australia's universities to profit from IELTS examiner fraud.
- The Australian Government to use a fake English language test (IELTS) to expel international students from Australia after they graduate.

8 universities have an IELTS test centre on campus

These universities profit from fraud and crimes against humanity committed against vulnerable international students and migrants on their campus:

- University of Sydney
- Macquarie University
- University of Canberra
- Western Sydney University
- Newcastle University, Australia

How you can help

- Promote Pearson, TOEFL and OET as better English language testing options.

<https://www.border.gov.au/Lega/Lega/Form/Immi-FAQs/aelt>

IELTS and Cambridge are the most untrustworthy English language providers.

- If you know any person who has taken IELTS and is not happy with their treatment, encourage them to take IELTS to the small claims court.

- Expose Australia's international student visa scams. Explain to people in other countries that Australia's international student visa system deliberately sets lower IELTS entry scores to maximize enrollments. Australia sets higher IELTS scores for immigration and uses IELTS examiner corruption and profiteering to reject most permanent residency visa applications.
