About the Speaker:

Dr. Jordan Lamberton, also known as Dr. Jordan, is the owner and award-winning orthodontist at Hello Ortho in Napa and Petaluma, California. Dr. Lamberton was born and raised locally in Napa, and is a 3rd generation dentist. He has a passion for lifelong learning, previously taught Invisalign at the UOP Orthodontic Clinic in San Francisco, and is a published author. His favorite part of his profession is caring for and helping patients get the smiles they want and deserve. Dr. Lamberton graduated cum laude in Sociology from UC Irvine, then graduated from UOP's Dental School where he received the Dean's Salutatorian Award. He attended the University of Colorado for his orthodontic training and received the prestigious Thomas M. Graber Award for his research on orthodontic pain management. Dr. Lamberton is a dental legacy; his father is a general dentist in Napa and his grandfather was a missionary serving as both an orthodontist and a general dentist in Thailand. When Dr. Lamberton is not improving smiles, he can most likely be found on the golf course, scuba diving or playing basketball.
