RSPCA WA

From all the animals, volunteers and staff at RSPCA WA we would like to send a big thank you to David Brittain for supporting animals in need through the 2019 Paws of Love Calendar. The funds raised from this project will help to protect animals from cruelty, actively promote public awareness about animal welfare and advocate for improvements in the way people relate to animals. RSPCA WA receives more than 19,000 cruelty complaints every year and on any given day, cares for around 300 animals and you're helping to care for many more in the community.

RSPCA WA relies on generous donations and the support of the community for over 90% of the funds needed for our animal protection work, including keeping Inspectors on the road throughout WA. Thank you for your support.

Paws of Love Pet Photography

Paws of Love Pet Photography was founded by Award Winning Photographer David Brittain.

David has over 25 years of experience as a professional photographer, is a graduate of the prestigious New York Film Academy and has been awarded the title of Master Photographer 4 times by the A.I.P.P.

David and his dog loving team are passionate about creating something different from the normal photos of dogs, something more artistic.

This project has allowed me to give something back to the community by helping to raise money for this worthy charity.

David website can found at www.pawsoflove.com.au
