Black Genesis Fortress of Evil

by world-renowned British artist Gerry Grace
Cover art for Volume 2 of L. Ron Hubbard's best-selling
MISSION EARTH series

Black Genesis: Fortress of Evil shows hero Jettero Heller's ship TUG ONE, arriving on earth at the start of his daring mission. The Voltarian base in Afyon, Turkey is hidden inside a mountain with an electronically simulated top. The top looks real enough to the naked eye and Earth's instruments read it as real. But it doesn't exist in fact.

Made with the highest quality continuous tone process, 15 colors are used to faithfully reproduce the original painting. This is a limited edition of 500 signed and numbered copies.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

World-renowned English artist Gerry Grace is a graduate of the Bath Academy of Art. He developed an early love for science fiction and is today one of the most sought after artists in Britain. His line of credits is extensive including work for best-selling authors L. Ron Hubbard, Robert Heinlein, Frank Herbert, Stephen King and many others. His cover illustration for the international edition of BATTLEFIELD EARTH was done in participation with L. Ron Hubbard who directed the color coordination and visual impact. This appeared on more than two million books distributed in over 40 countries. Mr. Grace also produced each of the covers of the ten hardback volumes of L. Ron Hubbard's New York Times best-selling MISSION EARTH series. Mr. Grace currently resides in Brighton, England.

The Invaders Plan, the first print in the MISSION EARTH cover series originally sold for $1,250. The limited copies still available now sell for $5,250.

The assigned Examining Attorney has reviewed the referenced application and determined the following.

In the preamble, the entity of applicant should be amended to:

Trustee of L. Ron Hubbard Family Trust, a California Trust, the trustee is Norman F. Starkey, U.S. citizen, doing business as L. Ron Hubbard Library.

Applicant should include in the record that the name on the drawing refers to a deceased individual.

The name, "Author Services Inc.," appears in the record. The Applicant must explain: (1) the relationship between the Applicant and this party, (2) whether that party holds any rights in the mark, (3) how the Applicant benefits from any use of the mark by that party and (4) how the Applicant controls the nature and quality of the goods under this use. 37 C.F.R. Section 2.38; TMEP section 1201.09(b).

The specimens submitted are not acceptable as evidence of actual trademark use because they do not support use of the mark on the goods. The Applicant must submit five specimens showing the mark as used in commerce. Examples of acceptable specimens are tags, labels, instruction manuals, containers or photographs. The Applicant must verify, by affidavit or declaration under 37 C.F.R. Section 2.20, that the substitute specimens were in use in commerce on or before the filing date of the application. The Jim Dandy Co. v. Siler City Mills, Inc., 209 USPQ 764 (TTAB 1981); TMEP section 808.10.

The specimens are acceptable for services. Applicant may amend to mail order services in the field of limited edition books and art prints in Class 42.

Unless applicant can present evidence showing use of the mark on the goods, namely, art prints and books, he may not register the mark as a trademark for these goods.

The Applicant must disclaim the descriptive terminology "gallery" apart from the mark as shown. Trademark Act Section 6, 15 U.S.C. Section 1056 (1986); TMEP sections 904.02(a) and (e). The term is descriptive here because this term merely describes a feature of the service which is a gallery selling art and books.

The computerized printing format for the Trademark Official Gazette requires a standard form for a disclaimer. A properly worded disclaimer should read as follows:

No claim is made to the exclusive right to use gallery apart from the mark as shown.

See In re Owatonna Tool Co., 231 USPQ 493 (Comm'r Pats. 1983).

The Examining Attorney has searched the Office records and has found no similar registered or pending mark which would bar registration under Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. Section 1052(d) (1986). TMEP section 1105.01.

Black Genesis Fortress of Evil

by world-renowned British artist Gerry Grace
Cover art for Volume 2 of L. Ron Hubbard's best-selling
MISSION EARTH series

Black Genesis: Fortress of Evil shows hero Jettero Heller's ship TUG ONE, arriving on earth at the start of his daring mission. The Voltarian base in Afyon, Turkey is hidden inside a mountain with an electronically simulated top. The top looks real enough to the naked eye and Earth's instruments read it as real. But it doesn't exist in fact.

Made with the highest quality continuous tone process, 15 colors are used to faithfully reproduce the original painting. This is a limited edition of 500 signed and numbered copies.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

World-renowned English artist Gerry Grace is a graduate of the Bath Academy of Art. He developed an early love for science fiction and is today one of the most sought after artists in Britain. His line of credits is extensive including work for best-selling authors L. Ron Hubbard, Robert Heinlein, Frank Herbert, Stephen King and many others. His cover illustration for the international edition of BATTLEFIELD EARTH was done in participation with L. Ron Hubbard who directed the color coordination and visual impact. This appeared on more than two million books distributed in over 40 countries. Mr. Grace also produced each of the covers of the ten hardback volumes of L. Ron Hubbard's New York Times best-selling MISSION EARTH series. Mr. Grace currently resides in Brighton, England.

The Invaders Plan, the first print in the MISSION EARTH cover series originally sold for $1,250. The limited copies still available now sell for $5,250.

L. Ron Hubbard

L. Ron Hubbard is one of the most highly acclaimed and widely read authors of all time. With more than twenty-four million copies of his fiction published in over a dozen languages throughout the world, his career as an author has been a staggering success. The novel, BATTLEFIELD EARTH, which he wrote to celebrate his fiftieth anniversary as a professional writer, remained for thirty-two weeks on the nation's bestseller lists and has been on numerous international lists. He then wrote his ten-volume magnum opus, MISSION EARTH. Each volume of this landmark series appeared on virtually every national bestseller list, headed by the prestigious New York Times, giving him a dozen bestsellers in just a few years. In 1984, Mr. Hubbard sponsored a new contest, Writers of the Future, for aspiring writers, in order to bring recognition to new authors and to provide outstanding, fresh new works to the reading public. The winning stories each year are published in an anthology, L. Ron Hubbard Presents Writers of the Future, which has become the top-selling science fiction anthology of all time.

The Frazetta Suite

Bob Frazetta's first work, "The Frazetta Suite," is a painting of a muscular, blue-skinned warrior in a dynamic pose, possibly fighting or wrestling, set against a dark, dramatic background with a red sky. The painting is a classic example of Frazetta's style, which is characterized by its bold, muscular figures and dramatic, high-contrast lighting.
