OUR STORY

The name Gifford's Kitchen and Social is a nod to the founders of the City of Elgin. In 1835, two brothers, Hezekiah and James Gifford left central New York in search of new land in the quickly developing US frontiers. Their desire was to find land along one of the main rivers which, at the time, served as our nation's first commercial highways. Riding on horseback from Chicago, they headed first toward the Milwaukee River in Wisconsin only to find the area had already been claimed. They persevered on eventually finding a perfect spot on the west side of the Fox River, today called Elgin.
