Autism: Advisory and Training

Individualised to suit setting as well as Inclusion driven with a social model/neurodiversity ethos

- Understanding autism as a different way of processing and thinking
- promotion of a child centered approach in support of autistic students
- strategies/approaches proven to support learning
- fostering a “whole school approach to the inclusion of autistic students
- adopting different approaches/thought patterns attached to “behaviours of concern”

BPSI School Support, Presentations & Training

- 1. Work with member(s) of the Senior Leadership Team to review current approach to the “whole school approach”, inclusion, curriculum differentiation, identify Good Autism Practice, areas for development and form an action plan for implementation.
BPSI hours vary
- 2. Work with Curriculum Inclusion/SEN Coordinator to review the staff education/understanding/experience of autism. Identify where good autism practice is currently being implemented, identify areas where it could be included. Develop and deliver training as needed.
