A Mother's expression of Pain To her son who is suffering from Gender Identity Disorder

It is just too hard to say goodbye, everyday I drown myself in tears and cry

Why do you want to be someone else and not the boy I gave birth to?

Why are you doing this to yourself and us, Don't you understand how much we love You?

You take the drugs and change your name every day that goes by I realize that nothing will ever be the same

Nothing ever will and I just go on feeling the pain
Longing, Loving the memory of my little boy of my son
What have I ever done? To deserve this?
I did the best that I could but something broke inside of you, Something that I cannot fix
You continue to listen to the lies and keep the door open to satan's tricks

I thought that love would win out but you still keep choosing to believe the lies, telling you that you are a woman trapped in a man's body, a body that you say you despise.

I cannot bear it, to see you fading away, like you are locked inside a tomb destroying the very body that I worked so hard to take care of from the first day I found out God put you in my womb,

It is not fair, it is extremely cruel,
God made you a man and there is No other rule

If you loved me you would come to your senses and realize the truth and seek help
Instead you say no and I am going to think only about myself

You are my first, a son and an older brother, what if I said to you, I no longer want to be your mother?
Yet you want me to look at you in your insanity and treat you like a daughter, I rather be a cow being led to the slaughter

You say you are happier with this new life you've chosen; How can you be happier when each day your heart remains frozen?

Frozen and hard to your families appeals, that you stop all this insanity and come back to what is real !
What is real is that you are a man and will always be that way, you can try to change the outside but never your DNA

What is real is that we raised you as our son and we will love and care for no other we want our son back and your siblings want their brother

Our hearts are shattered we have nothing left but broken pieces and pictures we cannot look at because they cause us heartache and pains
It is like watching the son I love slowly fading away with every drop of estrogen you put into your veins

What made medical science and doctors so arrogant they use weapons of mass distortion they kill the unborn and say it is a choice and encourage sick confused people like you to commit identity abortion.

They do not care that this is a sin, because Jesus is not their Savior, they do not believe in HIM, instead they say their savior is a the man, Harry Benjamin

They do not care about you, your family or your salvation, they just want to indoctrinate you and the others into their Agenda for this Nation

Wake up I say to you in Jesus Name! You have no one else but yourself to blame because you choose to trust strangers and believe the lies of that blind you so much you cannot see Instead of the truth of God's Word, the only thing that will set you free!

I do not know what it will take so I cry and I pray to God to save you before it is too late Jesus said knock and the door will be opened and narrow is the gate..

Stop thinking and fearing what will happen if you turn back, put your trust in the Lord
And He will give you the strength that you lack

Yes, I have been angry and cried until my eyes are swollen, for I do not want my precious son whom I love to be stolen

You are almost 32 now days turning into years, If you do not trust God I do and I have the faith that He will deliver you and wipe away my tears.

His Word says He hears me when I cry and pray, so I will wait upon the Lord and be at rest until that day.
