

YOU WILL MAKE ME KNOW WISDOM

"You desire truth in the innermost being, And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom." - Psalms 51:6 (NASV)

God is a God that seeks truth and desires that we live in truth. Since I was about 12 years old, I have desired and fanaticized about changing my gender. I felt and thought that I was in the wrong body. I did not match up physically with what my mind has been telling me. Yet, one of the things that has kept me from pursuing this lifestyle more than I have is that I know that I was created as a male. As much as I may not like that or wish it were not so, it does not change the truth. The truth is that I am a male as I possess the DNA and chromosomes of a man. My physical body naturally looks and sounds like a man. I can change my body shape and teach myself to act and sound feminine, but I know that I'm playing a part that is not natural. I may even become quite convincing in performing this role but that's all it is...a performance. As much as I may wish it were real, I know it's not and God knows it's not.

God has called me to live a life of truth. Jesus himself said that He is truth (John 14:6) and He desires that I know the truth and, through that truth, I am set free (John 8:32)! My mind may not want it, my body may not like it, but my heart knows the truth and I desire to live in that truth and to see God work to reinforce that truth in the deepest parts of me. Anything other than living in that truth is to live a lie. Living a lie is a tragic place to live and if God is truth and my life is pursuing a lie, then my life is not in line with God and distant from Him.

Living in truth and being in relation with the God who made me to live honestly and truthfully, no matter the cost or the struggle, is the best place to be. It is freeing to know that you're not performing or trying to fill a role that you were not created to fill. I desire to trust in the Lord and to see Him work through me for His glory and purposes. A life for Him is the best life to be living!

Live in the truth! It is worth it! -- Billy
