

An abstract painting on a piece of graph paper. The painting features a central dark brown, almost black, vertical shape that resembles a stylized figure or a column. This central shape is surrounded by vibrant, layered colors: bright yellow and green on the left and right sides, and a thick, vertical band of red on the far right. The background is a mix of blue and green washes. The word 'φιλοσοφία' is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the center of the painting, overlapping the dark central shape and the surrounding colors. The graph paper grid is visible in the background, with the painting's edges roughly following the grid lines.
