

SECOND ADVENT

The night when all the stars were lost
The sight of an abandoned world with no compassion
The fight between what's wrong and right
The light challenge you to live until tomorrow

Come and tell me where to run
Come and tell me where to hide
Come and show me how to live
I can't last forever

Living for tomorrow today
curse me now or bless me
Living for tomorrow today
beyond shattered dreams
It's hard to last another day without you

The guilt flooded our minds tonight
We who build again the Babel's tower
To reach for heaven
Instead we reached the depths of hell
And second advent now will find us
All drowned in madness

Come and tell me how should I know
Come and tell me how can I save my soul
Come and tell me is this a fantasy
I can't last forever

JOURNEY OF NO RETURN

Thorns on his head
His bloodstains are flashing the red light of heaven
They want Him dead
The countdown has started
It's time for the slaughter

Voices are calling
Angels are falling

Clouds in the skies
The light turns to darkness
It's time for His kingdom's reign
Piercing His flesh
The crowd now is cheering and mission's accomplished

Voices are calling
Angels are falling
People are roaring they want to see Him dead
Hear the drums beating See the crowd spitting
Cross now is waiting for you

There was a time when love was the solution
But eyes were raging with passion and hatred burned
Then came the time we sought for absolution
And now we're trapped in a journey of no return

Looking behind
We all know what happened
But do we believe it?
Maybe one day
We all shall abjure once again what man witnessed

Voices are calling

There was a time when love was the solution
....

If you are the Messiah
Why don't you save yourself and us?
Have you no fear of God?
We deserve to die, but He's done nothing wrong Jesus, remember me when you reach your kingdom
Tomorrow we'll be together in paradise

IRENE

Last night I had a dream of you again
Holding me tight I wish the night would never end
Day after day this feeling burns me
And I can't stand it

This time you said we'd be apart for good
We've run out of time
Love me again
For one more time
Give me what I need to survive till dawn

Irene you've got my back to the wall
And although you know that I love you
You broke my heart and tore it apart
Irene I still want to hold you

Look out loving ain't easy as you think
When you reach out for love
I think that then you'll see what I mean
Dazed by your eyes
I couldn't see that your love was fake
Full of lies

Irene you've got my back to the wall

And although you know that I love you
You've broken my heart and Torn me apart
Irene I still want to hold you

Day after day this felling burns me
And I can't stand it

HEROES DON'T CRY

On a misty morning
Far away from home
Searching for a sign of hope
But it seems I'm all alone
In a land where leaves are brown where
The sun don't shine
There I left my innocence behind

Heroes don't cry not even when shot through the heart
Heroes don't cry all alone in the dark
Not even when death is in sight
Heroes don't cry not even when all hope is lost
Heroes don't cry so I guess that I'm not a hero
I guess I'm not a hero

Just imagination or reality
Optical illusion I hear a voice calling me:
*'If you want to go back home
First you have to climb
Over the mountain of buddies you left behind'*

STREET GIRL

You'll never love me like I do
I know your promises were hardly true
I was a fool to love a girl like you
Although I knew you'd fade and die

When I first saw you on the streets
Hanging around
Black lipstick, make-up
Smile and fleshy lips
Your red dress couldn't hide the pain inside
How can I steal your love away
For ever and ever

Street girl, street girl
Hanging out on the streets to sell love
Street girl, street girl
You took my heart away for ever

I touched your body through the night
And as I was determined for your love to fight

The game was lost
You were a shadow in the night
An angel seeking paradise

Street girl, street girl dancing on the edge of heaven
Street girl, street girl
Let me dance with you for ever

JUST LIKE A DREAM

Life was just an easy game to play
And days were passing
Lonely out of love for me
Like a black sheep
I just couldn't find my way
Till you came along baby

Suddenly one night I found you in a dream
You offered me a life away from pain and misery
Now the brightest sun is shining on my life
Forever together
Living in a dream

Your love's like a dream
Don't let it fade away
I'm living in a dream away
From my sins
Away from my faults
Just like a dream don't let it fade away again
From your eyes
Your love is just like a dream

Girl I want to live inside our dream
My life since then has been an endless flowing stream
Now I close my eyes and leave for good
The world below
And staying forever with you in a dream

Your love's like a dream
Don't let it fade away.....

Eternal sleep with you
Means eternal life
Cause my life in a world without you
Cuts like a knife

Your love's like a dream
Don't let it fade away.....

BROKEN VOWS

Heard you crying again all alone by the sea
The girl you love is gone
You've got no reason to be
Her face is fading in and out of your mind Words of love became a raged shout drowned in tears

Showed you love, how I care
And gave you my love
To be free from you
Crowned you queen of my life
So don't let it go

There's nothing to say
Nothing to do
I'm dying for your love tonight

Hold tight, feels right
Give me your love tonight

Silent voices are telling me
To turn now the page
Destiny's the force ruling the game
If boundless love couldn't be the key to your heart
I wish I had the chance to love you again
From the start

Hold tight, feels right
Give me your love tonight

FEVER

I'm burning with fever
A killer swims in my blood
A forbidden emotion to contort every part of me

Still the candle is burning
Burning so low for me
Like the years of my childhood
Vanishing memories

I can't stand another night like this
Pray to God to free me
From this fever

Fever sculptor of my destiny
Shelter for my sanity
Fever don't come back

I falter before
I feel so scared feel so weak
But I can't break the chains from you
If I just could believe in me

Like a god you embrace me
Feel so safe in your arms
But your kisses are fatal
They mean life and death to me

I can't stand another night like this
Pray to god to free me from this fever

Fever sculptor of my destiny
Shelter for my sanity
Fever don't come back
