JO G. GILMORE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND
OF THE
LONE STAR DESK AND DERRICK CLUB OF DALLAS

The Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs was started in 1949 with the purpose of promoting the education and professional development of individuals employed in or affiliated with the petroleum, energy and allied industries and to educate the general public about these industries. The organization has grown to over 2,500 members in 61 clubs in 7 regions throughout the United States and Canada. ADDC is a major contributor of energy educations through informative programs, on-site field trips, workshops, seminars and teaching publications. For more information visit the website www.addc.org.

The Lone Star Desk and Derrick Club of Dallas, which is a part of The Association of Desk and Derrick Clubs (ADDC) and is comprised of men and women from all sectors of the energy industry. Experienced professionals in various disciplines, including management, engineering, land, accounting, sales, geology, and operations among other fields. Aside from promoting education among its members and the community, one of the most important things The Lone Star Desk and Derrick Club of Dallas does on an ongoing basis is to promote education through the Jo G. Gilmore Memorial Scholarship Fund. The scholarships are offered to outstanding students planning a career in the petroleum, energy and allied industries. The award is flexible and depends on the qualifications of each student. Awards are available to both graduate and undergraduate students.

Applicants will be judged on the following general qualifications:

• Must be a US citizen
• Preference given to Dallas/FW Metroplex residents
• Studies must be in a field relating to energy industries
• An overall GPA of at least 3.00 out of 4.00 (An official transcript is required to confirm their GPA. If the student is a freshman, the committee will need a copy of their high school transcript.)

Applicants should compose a letter of 250 words or less to the committee chairman outlining their qualifications, goals and any relevant information. To receive consideration, the following must accompany the letter:

• The Jo G. Gilmore Memorial Scholarship application
• A current official transcript
The scholarship committee will select the award recipients and notify them.
