Claude Wood, President and CEO of Concord Crossroads, LLC, opened long awaited discussions with his Alma Mater, Virginia State University regarding opportunities with alumni small businesses regarding the capacity to improve scholarship, service, and teaching through strengthening the relationship among the alumni business community, governmental resources, and the University. During this meeting in January 2016, which included fellow alumni and business men Kevin Jennings , Norman Freeman, and VSU Vice President for Institutional Advancement and several Deans of Schools, there was an agreement to conduct follow on meetings and to develop strategies for the future. Together with VSU, they decided to explore future initiatives which, allows for increased access from the business community to engage with the University's research agenda. Mr. Wood is honored to lead the effort forward with other business alumni to forge new financial opportunities for the growth of Virginia State University.
