DUMFRIES, VA

SEPTEMBER 2016

Concord Crossroads, LLC is honored to recognize our very own employee, Peter Armstrong, for his outstanding contributions in support of the Spring 2016 America's PrepareAthon! Mr. Armstrong is an Antiterrorism Officer with the Training and Doctrine Command [TRADOC] assigned to the Maneuver Center of Excellence [MCoE] at Fort Benning, GA.

The America PrepareAthon! is a campaign sponsored by the Department of Defense [DoD] twice a year – in spring and fall- to build and sustain national preparedness by identifying and learning about the hazards people face in their everyday lives. The Department of Defense depends on the strength and readiness of its military and civilian workforce. According to the DoD, one of its top priorities is focusing on the well-being and safety of each member of our workforce and their families so that the U.S. can continue to be safeguarded. From the DoD's perspective, national preparedness and military readiness are synonymous.

The focus of the Spring Campaign supports this perspective by addressing weather emergencies such as tornadoes, floods, wildfires, hurricanes, and extreme heat hazards, however, the DoD called for each region to consider their potential hazards and how to prepare for them. To this end, Fort Benning distinguished itself among the 144 Components and installations through which DoD leadership promoted the campaigns and associated preparedness activities by reaching approximately 4,201,456 individuals. The Commanding General of the Maneuver Center of Excellence at Fort Benning, was recognized for this remarkably success. It was stated that his “commitment underscores the importance of leadership, partnership building, and education to foster a culture of preparedness within the Department. Establishing a culture of preparedness at every level within the Department makes us better postured to execute our missions and to safeguard U.S. national security interests.”

Armstrong was part of a team who played an important role in bolstering the preparedness for all hazards in strengthening the collective security and reliance. Notably, Mr. Peter Armstrong, TRADOC, Maneuver Center of Excellence, Antiterrorism Officer, is one of four others who conducted exceptional preparedness activities exemplifying and embodying the best of what DoD accomplished to enhance the preparedness of individuals and families in the workplace. Through integrated and collaborated military readiness and mission assurance activities, the team strengthened our national security and ensured that the communities they served were prepared to meet these threats to protect and defend the homeland with a unified approach to crisis management.
