

'Eat Local'

A new feature for this year's event

The sixth annual Berry Small Farm Field Days held at the beautiful Berry Showground are on Friday 8th and Sat 9th Sept - with an anticipated crowd of over 5,000.

A new feature this year under the umbrella of "Eat Local" will showcase locally produced food and beverages - supported by Shoalhaven City Council.

A large dedicated marquee will house exhibitors. Stalls will be 3m x 3m or can be 6m x 3m for those requiring larger space.

This is a great opportunity for producers of various food delicacies, wine and other beverages from our local area, to showcase their products in the unique environment which the Field Days provide.

Exhibitor cost will be subsidised to encourage involvement, with 3m x 3m sites being just $150.

To reserve your space, contact:

Exhibit Coordinator Paul Andersen on 0413 135 086
or email: paulandersen@bigpond.com

Eat Local - including livestock derived products like grass fed beef and lamb, free range pork, chicken and eggs, organically produced alpaca meat and various game meats, fish and oysters. fruit and vegetables together with local wines, ciders, fruit wines and craft beers. Plus, a huge array of condiments, jams, jellies, chutneys, sauces and cordials.

Another community fundraising project of the Rotary Club of Berry
www.berryrotary.org.au