White-Sunday

I cannot do better than quote some words by Dr. W. H. Miller, spoken twenty years ago, which are very appropriate in this connection.

One of the needs of the present time is a closer appreciation and perhaps more definite feeling in regard to the work of the Holy Spirit in the Church.

It is significant that in the New Testament the Holy Spirit is always the most prominent factor in the work of the Church.

BRISTOL'S LITTLE THEATRE PLANS

Reopening in September After Summer Vacation.

Bristol's Little Theatre will definitely reopen on September 23, after the summer vacation.

This in itself is good news to local playgoers, even better is the news that the players will again be Miss Grizel
Kinross's company, and the producer Mr Ronald Russell.

The present season will finish with the last presentation of "See Naples and Die," at the end of next week. The opening plays of the new season will be announced in due course.

The Little Theatre last night was filled with amateurs - who had a thoroughly good laugh at themselves for "The Torchbearer"
is a very funny farce satirising the efforts of a remarkable group of amateur theatrical enthusiasts. The Brislington Players, Operatic Section had bought the house -and they never regretted it.
