Human Rights In Native America

Native America is at the dawn of a “New Era” in Federal Indian Law and Policy--the Human Rights Era. The challenge at hand for this generation is to implement indigenous human rights that come from modern international human rights laws into domestic laws and policies in the United States. This session will identify implementation challenges in addition to ways human rights agencies can assist.

Presenter: Walter Echo-Hawk
Moderator: Jim Stowe, Director, Montgomery Country Office of Human Relations

10:30 AM-10:40 AM .... BREAK
Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing
(Studio 4, 3rd Floor)

Every public and private agency that receives funds or related support from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has an obligation to “Affirmatively Further Fair Housing.”

This session will focus on the new requirements for producing a quality fair housing assessment (formerly called an Analysis of Impediments) and how to insure compliance with the Fair Housing Act and HUD’s AFFH rule. This session will also present specific information, and strategies for developing effective enforcement techniques and building collaborations to achieve housing opportunities and reduce inequality.

Presenter:
Michael Mitchell,
Principal International Development and Planning, LLC

Moderator:
Carol Johnson,
Executive Director, Arkansas Fair Housing Commission

Institutionalizing Equity and Racial Justice in Government
(Studio 5, 3rd Floor)

The City of Seattle and King County have been two jurisdictions leading in race, equity and social justice initiatives in local government. King County has Equity and Social Justice, and the City of Seattle has its Race and Social Justice Initiative. They will each talk about how they are leading their efforts working internally and with the community.

The Government Alliance on Race and Equity is a network of local jurisdictions across the country working to dismantle institutional racism in an effort to advance racial equity.

Presenters:
LaMont Green,
Manager Race & Social Justice Initiative, City of Seattle

Nora Liu,
Government Alliance for Race and Equity

Moderator:
Matias Valenzuela,
Director, Office of Equity and Social Justice, Office of King County Executive

Including the Voices of People with Disabilities
(Strategy Room, 3rd Floor)

Including the voices of people with disabilities in civil rights investigations is critical to ensuring their rights to fully participate in social, economic, and political activities. This training will discuss ways to make investigation processes accessible to people with physical, intellectual, and psychiatric disabilities. We will share and discuss strategies for communication, accommodations to consider, and ways to improve accessibility of information about the complaint and investigation process.

Presenter:
Sarah Haywood Eaton
Staff Attorney, Disability Rights Washington

Moderator:
Sharon Ortiz,
Executive Director, Washington State Human Rights Commission

4:00 PM-5:15 PM
Gang of Four: Seattle’s Civil Rights Leaders
(Great Room 2, 3rd Floor)
Seattle’s Gang of Four changed the face of the city in the 1960s, 70s, and 80s by bringing four ethnic groups together in battle against city, county, and state powerbrokers over development, poverty, fishing rights, and gentrification. The four leaders quickly learned that working together provided greater results than working apart.

“The Four Amigos” refers to Bernie Whitebear, Bob Santos, Roberto Maestas, and Larry Gossett. All went on to leadership roles, including jointly founding the Minority Executive Directors’ Coalition. Whitebear founded the Seattle Indian Health Board and the United Indians of All Tribes Foundation. Santos was a prominent leader among Seattle’s Asian Americans and Interim Director of the Community Development Association; Maestas was the founder and director of El Centro de la Raza; Gossett founded the Central Area Motivation Program and went on to public office as a member of the King County Council. Larry Gossett is the sole surviving member of the “Gang of Four.”

Presenters:
- Larry Gossett, King County Councilmember
- Estela Ortega, Executive Director, El Centro de la Raza
- Sharon Tomiko Santos, Washington State House of Representatives
- Laura Wong Whitebear

Interrupting The School-To-Prison Pipeline (Studio 1, 2nd Floor)
This session will explore the civil rights implications of the School-To-Prison Pipeline (STPP). The STPP is a metaphor that describes how children of color and children with disabilities are funneled out of public schools into the juvenile and criminal justice systems.
This session will examine specific policies and practices thought to contribute to this problem, e.g., zero tolerance, exclusionary discipline policies and unconscious bias. There are hopeful interventions that could possibly change this phenomenon that results in the criminalization of vulnerable children.

Presenters:
Dominique Davis, Founder and CEO of Community Passageways
Clarence Henderson, Esq., Commissioner, Washington State Human

50th Anniversary Of The Fair Housing Act of 1968 (Studio 2, 2nd Floor)
The year 2018 marks the 50th anniversary of what HUD Secretary Ben Carson has called “one of the best pieces of legislation” our nation has ever passed - the Fair Housing Act. Fifty years after passage of the Fair Housing Act, housing discrimination and residential segregation continue to adversely affect millions of people in our country. That is because where you live matters. It affects every aspect of your life including how long you will live, your propensity to acquiring certain diseases, how much money you will make, your chances of being incarcerated, and whether your children will have a fair shot at attending college. Where you live determines whether you will live in a community with high-performing schools; access to nutritious and affordable food; quality healthcare facilities; reliable transportation;

FBI Hate Crimes  (Studio 1, 2nd Floor)

This session will discuss the investigation of hate crimes in Seattle and ways the Department is combatting hate. Hate crimes are the highest priority of the FBI’s Civil Rights program, not only because of the devastating impact they have on families and communities, but also because groups that preach hatred and intolerance can plant the seed of terrorism here in our country. The Bureau investigates hundreds of these cases every year and works to detect and deter further incidents through law enforcement training, public outreach, and partnerships with a myriad of community

Working Across Faiths to Advance Justice  (Studio 2, 2nd Floor)

In today’s challenging political environment, Washington State faith leaders have united as a powerful voice of the faithful building a more just, peaceful and sustainable world. This work builds from the strengths of today’s increasing diversity of cultures and faiths.

Where Do We Go from Here: Defining the Role of Civil Rights Agencies in Addressing Hate Incidents in the Community  (Studio 3, 2nd Floor)

This session will focus on the role of civil rights agencies in addressing the rise in bias incidents in the community. Panel will discuss the important role of civil rights agencies to Traditionally, FBI investigations of hate crimes were limited to crimes in which the perpetrators acted based on a bias against the victim’s race, color, religion, or national origin. In addition, investigations were restricted to those wherein the victim was engaged in a federally protected activity. With the passage of the Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr., Hate Crimes Prevention Act of 2009, the Bureau became authorized to investigate these crimes without this prohibition. This landmark legislation also expanded the role of the FBI to allow for the investigation of hate crimes committed against those based on biases of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or gender.

History of Seattle’s LGBTQ Rights Movement
(Studio 1, 2nd Floor)

Marriage Equality became a reality in 2015 when the Supreme Court ruled that same-sex marriage is a legal right in the United States. This was a historic moment for the LGBTQ community; for many it was a day they believed they would never live to see. This session will include a discussion on the history of the LGBTQ movement in Seattle and the barriers that continue to thwart full equality and inclusion.

Transgender 101
(Studio 2, 2nd Floor)

This session will include an overview of transgender terms and motivations. Transgender language is quickly changing. A four-quadrant drawing gives the audience a view of what motivates transgender women to be who they are. The transgender spectrum is overlaid with a view of our sexual orientations because gender identity issues cause a confusing juxtaposition to sexual orientation within the community.

LGBTQ Employment Discrimination
(Studio 3, 2nd Floor)

This session will focus on EEOC’s guidance on LGBTQ discrimination and similar cases at the Seattle Field Office of the EEOC. The session will also provide an overview of what is ahead in the region, the San Francisco district of the EEOC and across the nation.
