Home decorating demystified—that is what we promised and delivered—way back in 1998! With the release of Home Decorating For Dummies® there was finally A Reference for the Rest of Us.

HGTV star Chris Casson Madden called the book “a must-read” and “Decorating 101” for staffers of Interiors By Design. The late legendary fashion designer (and client!) Oleg Cassini proclaimed that our book could “help you design your own magic environment.” Design rockstar Karim Rashid said “this book will prepare you with the basic recipes you will need to make your interior more pleasurable.” “Wow! Has there ever been a more complete home decorating tutorial?” exclaimed furniture exec Caroline H. S. Hipple. The praise kept pouring in from Editors, Decorators, and of course, People who used the book to decorate their homes and change their lives!

Patricia Hart McMillan (Kat’s Mom!) and Katharine Kaye McMillan (Pat’s daughter!) are celebrating the 20th anniversary of America’s favorite how-to decorate book with appearances around the country. The 60-minute Talks shares decorating stories, tips, trends, and inspiration for decorating.
