

Ridgemark Farm Training and Lesson Program Rate Sheet

Training Program

Full Training 4 days per week	$775
3/4 Training 3 days per week	$660
Half Training 2 days per week	$520

- Training packages consist of a customized program consisting of lessons, trainer rides, longing, and groundwork based on the needs of each individual horse and rider
- Training may also include office sessions working on mindfulness and personal discovery based on what's going on in the arena with your horse
- Vicki will give you an intake interview when you come in and an exit interview if or when you choose to discontinue your training. We are committed to doing our best to meet your needs and also to receiving feedback about how we might improve our services
- Training packages are available to those who own their own horse or are leasing a horse
- Payment is due on the first of each month and is considered late on the 5th
- Payments made after the 5th will incur a $50 late fee billed on your next month's invoice
- Invoices will be emailed and payment can be made via check, Paypal, or direct deposit

Lesson Program

Single Lessons	$100
Prepaid Monthly Package of Four Lessons	$360
Prepaid Monthly Package of Eight Lessons	$640

- Lessons are 45 minutes long and may include horsemanship topics and groundwork depending on where your skills lie in the Ridgemark Farm Horsemanship Curriculum
- Packages must be paid in full at time of first lesson and lessons must be completed within the following 30 days-no refunds or carryovers to the next month
- Your first lesson will include a 15 minute intake interview, leaving 30 minutes for working with the horse. Lessons may be either group or private, depending on the schedule
- Please wear boots with a heel and bring your own helmet if possible. We do have a limited number of helmets to borrow but suggest that you buy your own
