ABOUT US

Bluffton, Indiana

The name "Bluffton" was derived from the site of the town - on the bluffs, south of the Wabash River. Because Bluffton was one of the first Indiana cities to have a large percentage of paved streets, it was long ago called "The Parlor City". The beautiful trees overhanging wide and spacious streets, with the many well kept homes and fine lawns, have helped to make this an ideal Hoosier city. Many of the prominent businesses in Bluffton can trace their origin back to pioneer times exemplifying their permanence and solidarity. Today, Bluffton serves as the county seat for Wells County.

This program has become such a hot commodity that we ran out of funding twice in 2017 do to a substantial increase project requests. We have multiple project proposals in the hopper already for 2018 as well. The aesthetics of and the ability to use downtown buildings has greatly improved since the inception of this program.

Youth Involvement

The 2017 class is working on creating marketing videos for the plaza and trail project.

Learning
Bluffton NOW! Membership is continually learning about what other communities are doing to revitalize their downtowns. Then looking at ways to learn from their mistakes and successes to help us work through the path of downtown revitalization. We have also taken opportunities to work with local community members to gain their perspective on what is desired for our downtown.
The Next Phases!
What are working towards accomplishing next!

Market Street Plaza $1,100,000
Bluffton NOW! is starting the process of taking a bad situation of a downtown fire and making it into a great opportunity to provide a location for downtown activities. Just the conversation about the Market Street Plaza has created an increased excitement in downtown development. The construction of the plaza will provide more opportunities for people to experience downtown Bluffton and participate in its revitalization.

Project Benefits

1. Creates a central gathering place “courthouse square” for community activities via a professionally designed plaza the highlights our historic courthouse.

Interurban Trail Ext. $1,300,000
Part of the Pokabache Trail Connector

While the interurban trail expansion is occurring miles away from downtown Bluffton, Bluffton NOW! is looking at a long term benefit from a substantial trail network. Over the last few years a plan has been formulated to create an 80 plus mile trail network that would connect Ouabache State Park and Pokagon State Park. This project has been spearheaded by local officials and the Northeast Indiana Regional Coordinating Council. The project is named Pokabache Trail. With approximately a ⅓ of the trail network already completed each new mile brings us one step closer to having a world class tourism magnet that will run through downtown Bluffton. The users of the trail will provide additional opportunities for downtown businesses.

Project Benefits

1. Furthers development of the southern portion of the 80 plus mile Pokabache Trail connecting Ouabache and Pokagon State Parks. By expanding our trail network we are doing our part to match the successful extensions of the trails completed by our neighboring communities. It shows how serious our community is to providing amenities that are important for attracting young talent and new business opportunities.

2. Promotes safety for those people who choose or need to walk or bike as their form of transportation. Ties northern neighborhoods to other parts of town already served by the trail. Improves mobility for everyone in our community, making it a more “walkable community”

3. Creates a community asset that will expand our local tourism opportunities in combination with our downtown and state park. It puts downtown on the map as a destination for trail users.

4. Provides for community health by creating a longer trail for exercise and outdoor activities which are known to improve both physical and mental health. Expanding the trail will give more people easy access to the trail.

5. Creates the opportunity for additional community trail related events such walks, 5Ks and marathons that attract people to our community and highlight our community pride.

Light Up Downtown (Part of Plaza Budget)
Bluffton NOW! will start the process with the Market Street Plaza to light up the alleyways and side street in downtown to provide safe routes throughout downtown and to provide a better visual appeal for businesses to be open later into the evening and for customers to want to move throughout downtown. The ideal design will be to use ultra efficient LED lighting to provide adequate lighting as an extension of the downtown street lighting. This plan will mimic the sidewalk lighting installed at the Wells Fargo bank.

Project Benefits

1. Improves the appearance of the downtown during the evening, by lighting up the side streets and alleyways within the downtown area. Creates a vibrant and inviting atmosphere which shows off our community pride in our downtown.

2. Creates a perception of safety in the downtown area by lighting up the dark areas in downtown. Removes any concern about traveling on downtown side streets and alleyways in the evening.

3. Promotes a cleaner downtown by lighting up all of downtown instead of just the main streets, increasing community pride in our downtown. Improved lighting reduces likelihood of vandalism and littering.

4. Utilizes LED lighting to promote high quality lighting in conjunction with low long term costs. Provides a major upgrade for downtown.

5. Improves the viability of downtown businesses, events and parking access in and around the downtown area, by creating well lit walking paths between the parking locations and desired destination for potential consumers and event attendees.
The Future Phases!
This is a list of our future planned revitalization efforts. These projects are still being developed and will continue to morph as the projects move through their development phases.

Improve Streetscape
Bluffton NOW! will promote the replacement of the mature trees used in the existing streetscape with planters and smaller ornamental trees to improve the view of store fronts and signage, while attempting to lessen the damage to sidewalks and underground utilities being caused by the existing trees.

Programming
Bluffton NOW! along with other organizations will start the process of designing and implementing programming for the Market Street Plaza that will create the additional excitement needed for downtown revitalization. Programs will include first Fridays, movies, music and much, much more.

Business Incubator
Bluffton NOW! leadership has been contemplating providing a location for entrepreneurs to work and share ideas which will cultivate new successful and resilient businesses that can set up in our community.

Performance and Movie Complex
Bluffton NOW! has plans to partner with a private developer and the creative arts council to create a downtown performance hall and movie complex to provide additional space for creative arts programming and once and for all answer the age old issue of needing a movie theatre in our community for our youth.

Downtown Residential Development
Bluffton NOW! has begun the process of testing the waters on potential residential development projects in the downtown area. The goal is to partner with existing building owners and a private developer to develop a residential project. Residential development is a key for long term resiliency in downtown revitalization. We would be looking at partnering with developers to bring high quality residential development into our downtown. This project also would work towards answering the needs set forth in the housing study.

Riverfront Development
Bluffton NOW! Is hoping to complete riverfront improvements that had been started by the construction of the Creative Arts and Commerce Building and Keho Park. By improving the east side of the downtown riverfront it will create a stellar entrance to our beautiful downtown. While the type of vehicle for such improvements is unknown at this time this goal is an important feature towards completing the revitalization of our downtown.
There are a wide variety of incentives to operate a business in downtown Bluffton. This is a list of a few of the available incentives to help bring your dream into a reality.
