

50TH CONFERENCE OF IRISH GEOGRAPHERS

10-12 MAY 2018

DRAFT TIMETABLE

Version 2, 6 April 2018

DRAFT

Wednesday 9 April

Annual SWIG pre-conference drinks

Thursday 10 April

10:30-11:15	Registration and Coffee
11:15-12:45	A1. Geography, gender and science	A2. Art and Geography 1: Embodied Geographies of the Nation (1)	A3. Geographies of elections: culture, place and politics	A4. Regional climates	A5. Legalities and liveabilities: making sense of the implementation of laws/policies and lived experiences of LGBTIQ/sexual and gender non conforming people	A6. 50 questions for Irish Geography research to help secure the Earth as our Home - workshop discussion
12:45-2	Lunch SWIG AGM
2-3:30	B1. Geography and the Irish statistical system	B2. Art and Geography 2: Embodied Geographies of the Nation (2)	B3. Compensatory homemaking in times of crisis and 'crisis-ordinary' (1)	B4. Historical climatology: data rescue, documentary evidence, management, quality assurance and reconstruction	B5. Evolving geographies, evolving methodologies	B6. New social geographies
3:30-4	Coffee
4-5:30	C1. Creating spaces for cooperation: crossing borders and boundaries before and after Brexit	C2. Art and Geography 3: The Earth as our Home	C3. Compensatory homemaking in times of crisis and 'crisis-ordinary' (2)	C4. Climate change impacts on the coast	C5. Doctoral Research Award
5:45-6:45	Keynote: Ayona Datta
6:45-XXX	Opening Reception
Later	Post-reception reception for Postgraduate and Early Career Researchers (PECR)

Friday 11 May

9-10:30	D1. Women in Geography Roundtable	D2. Art and Geography 4: Workshop and Discussion. Fostering Art for Sustainability in Ireland	D3. FOSS4G in research and teaching (1)	D4. New directions in Irish historical geographies (1)	D5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 1: 50 years after Buchanan – regional planning in Ireland	D6. Environment, biodiversity and risk
10:30-11	Coffee
11-12:30	E1. Meta-narrating the city: circulating urban spatial stories from above and below (1)	E2. Art and Geography 5: Dance and Geography	E3. FOSS4G in research and teaching (2)	E4. New directions in Irish historical geographies (2)	E5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 2: Metropolitan governance and government	E6. Geographies of (non-) reproduction (1)
12:30-1:30	Lunch PECR AGM
1:30-3	F1. Meta-narrating the city: circulating urban spatial stories from above and below (2)	F2. Art and Geography 6: Data Art Workshop. Building City Dashboards with Artists' Collaboration	F3. Local approaches to enhance and appreciate biodiversity - a walk and talk session around our Green Campus	F4. Energy and everyday life: Exploring the lived experience of energy systems change (1)	F5. Perspectives on regional and urban planning 3: 50 years after Myles Wright – urban planning in Ireland	F6. Geographies of (non-) reproduction (2)
3-3:30	Coffee
3:30-5	G1. Lightning talk challenge - snapshots in geographical research	G2. Anne Buttimer and the Practice of Geography	G3. Landscape change and Earth Observation	G4. Energy and everyday life: Exploring the lived experience of energy systems change (2)	G5: Critical and creative geographies of development
5:15-6:15	Keynote: Rob Wilby
6:30-	Conference Dinner

Saturday 12 May

9:30-11	H1. Climate modeling & analysis: minimizing our impact on Earth as our home	H2. Between Nature and Culture, Land and Sea: Spatial Practices at the Coast (1)	H3. Critical geographies of housing	H4. Rural geographies I: Rurality as choice: myth or reality?	H5. Making space for publics: a challenge for cities on the path to being smart (1)
11-11:30	Coffee
11:30-1	J1. Placing geography beyond the campus	J2. Between Nature and Culture, Land and Sea: Spatial Practices at the Coast (2)	J3. Confronting the commodification of housing	J4. Rural geographies II: Contemporary trends in the social economy sector	J5. Making space for publics: a challenge for cities on the path to being smart (2)	J6. CPD workshop: what would a geography podcast series look like
1-2	Keynote: Manuel Aalbers
2pm	Lunch GSI AGM Fieldtrip					