BUNGAREE COMMEMORATION WEEKEND

Friday 23rd & Saturday 24th November

Bungaree was one of the most celebrated men in early Sydney.

Part of our local history, born in the Broken Bay area, his descendants live on the coast today.

The Pearl Beach Aboriginal History Group are commemorating him.
He died on the 24th November,
188 years ago.

Please join us and the local Indigenous people for a series of community events about the history of this area.

Everyone welcome!

Friday, 23rd November

7pm: Opening event - An Evening with Keith Vincent Smith

Historian and author of 'King Bungaree', Keith is a specialist in the history of Bungaree and his family. His presentation introduces this remarkable man, his life on the coast, his travels around Australia and his life in early Sydney.
7:45pm Join Keith and high profile local identities for canapes and wine.
Thankyou to Ross Hillyard & Pearl Beach Real Estate. Venue: Pearl Beach Hall.

BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL. Tickets $15 - email: pbaboriginalhistory@gmail.com for booking details.

Saturday, 24th November

Free Community Events - Pearl Beach Hall - All Welcome!

9:30am -12pm: Weaving Workshop with the Mingaletta Sisters Weaving Group (limited numbers)

9:30am - 4pm: Indigenous Book Stall - books for everyone! Thanks to The Bouddi Gallery, Hardy's Bay
Exhibition of Unique Local Indigenous Artifacts from the Brisbane Water Historical Society

4pm - 5:30pm: Bushtucker Walk n' talk around Pearl Beach

6:30pm: Welcome to Country and Smoking Ceremony followed by
An Evening with Bungaree's Descendants, Tracey Howie and Laurie Bimson