I am the President of _____ Organization and I am going to be traveling through your area on _____. My company has asked me to educate others on our LIFE changing product called Plexus. Folks with Pain, Diabetes, Prediabetic, high lipid levels and those who struggle to lose weight have seen Unbelievable results with our simple natural drink. It would be a free 1 hour seminar educating anyone about it, they can taste the product, and would not cost you a thing and I would donate my time just because I am so very passionate about this! They need to leave their checkbooks and credit cards at home, we are not selling anything! Does this sound like something that could help a lot of folks in your area?
