

Dear

I congratulate Labour on their stunning results in the General Election which has resulted in the lack of a majority for the Conservatives. However, it needs to be made very clear that rather than a vote for Labour, the meteoric, and unexpected rise in the number of seats was mostly due to a tactical voting strategy against the Conservatives. If Labour now see this as a mandate to forge ahead with hard, or indeed any Brexit plans, they are gravely mistaken and will meet the same fate.

The voters of the country have, by this result, indicated that the support for Mrs May's form of extreme Brexit is just not there. In fact, it never was there, and much more care and investigation now must take place before any negotiations to leave the EU begin. I, and millions of other staunch Remainers will vote for any party that is outwardly and passionately pro-EU. Reformed, certainly, abandoned, never.

The views of over 16 million citizens have been ignored for the last year, the frustration and anger is rising ever higher and we will not stop until the danger of where we are heading is seen and stopped.

The political shambles in the UK is making us a laughing stock and it is time for Labour to stand up and fight for what is right for the country, to be a real opposition party instead of colluding with the Conservatives over leaving the EU.

On 23rd June 2016 (the day of the Referendum) 94% of Labour MP's supported staying in the European Union. Then suddenly the Remain Labour Party became a Leave Europe party, You knew that voters were lied to by the Leave EU camp, so you were either lying then or you are lying now. We now have a hung Parliament with Mrs May relying on terrorists to give her a majority for a hard Brexit. How do you think this hung Parliament came about? It came about because people were determined to get rid of the Tory party. They voted tactically for Labour not because they supported you but because of their desire to remain in the European Union. Labour was not elected to power because we do not trust you to abandon Brexit.

You went to bed with the last Tory government and offered no support at all for the 48% of British citizens who voted to remain in the Union. Disgrace on you, it will be a long time before we forgive you for that!

Support for remaining in Europe has grown and continues to grow daily as the Brexit fiasco unravels. You will do well to look at your policies for Brexit, else if and when there is another election, the support that was given to you will go elsewhere. The first major party that states they will abandon Brexit will gain the overwhelming support of the millions of active Remainers, regardless of their political allegiance.

Will it be you?

Dear

It is common knowledge that Theresa May's call for a snap election was an attempt to grab power and complete control by crushing any resistance or opposition to her plans for a hard Brexit negotiation with the European Union.

The tactical voting process that flourished throughout the country and the increased number of voters due to this drastic situation, was not to shift or demonstrate support for the Labour party. It was an act of democracy to halt a dictatorship. The support of the electorate that is now beyond the 48% will be given to the party or coalition of MPs that stand for remaining within the European Union.

It is clear that Theresa May's call for a snap election, was an attempt to grab greater power by crushing any opposition to her plans for a hard Brexit.

What took place however was a magnificent display of tactical voting that stripped her of her Commons majority. It was most emphatically NOT a vote for the Labour Party, rather it was a vote against the Tories. Those who voted to Remain in the EU have been dreadfully treated by the main parties, including of course the Labour Party who chose instead, to go to bed with the Tories. You are not forgiven for this, nor will you be any time soon.

We urge you to stop sucking up to the Tories and instead reflect the true 'Will of the People' i.e. to abandon Brexit entirely. The first main party that pledges to do this, will get the enormously powerful support of the Remainers.

We are not leaving the European Union.

Dear

Following the election result you should be aware that an enormous number of people campaigned for and voted tactically for candidates they would not normally support in order to bring about a hung parliament, not to give the Labour party a majority while it still supports brexit. This was brought about as we do not want or accept brexit in any form. I was one of those who voted tactically. I do not recognise the legitimacy of an advisory only referendum where a slim majority was obtained by deception but which has been used to pursue a hard brexit by the Conservative party aided and abetted by an almost total lack of opposition.

Quite clearly Mrs May failed to obtain her mandate for a hard brexit . You now have the opportunity to distance yourselves from Mrs May's lack of judgement, and halt this destructive course of action. I would remind you that you have been elected as a representative of the people and as a Member of Parliament you are bound by the Code of Conduct which states that "Members have a general duty to act in the interests of the nation as a whole". You need to take notice of what the electorate have voted for.

If you truly believe in Parliamentary Sovereignty, democracy and decency I sincerely hope that you will now examine your conscience and support a course of action that is in the best interests of all concerned, if that means going against the party line or forming a progressive alliance with others of another party I implore you to find the courage to do so.

If another election is called you can be certain that our support will go to any main party that pledges to abandon brexit, if none do we will simply ensure another hung parliament.

Yours
