

AFRICAN ELEPHANT

- They live 60-70 years.
- They are herbivores
- They use their trunks to smell, to grasp items, to suck water to drink and spray over their body, and as a snorkel.

LION

- They live in prides, with 3-40 other lions.
- Their roar can be heard five miles away.
- Hunting is done at night by the females.

GIRAFFE

- They are 14-19 feet tall.
- There are 4 different species of giraffe. You can tell by the pattern and color of their spots.
- They live 25 years.

CHEETAH

- The world's fastest land animal.
- It can run 75 mph, as fast as a car.
- They make a chirrup, which sounds like a bird chirping.

MANDRILL

- They live 20 years.
- The males' faces are more colorful than the females'.
- They live in rainforests.

CHIMPANZEE

- They are omnivores so they eat both plants and animals.
- There are only 100,000 to 200,000 left in the wild.
- The babies stay with their mummies for 10 years.

ZEBRA

- There are 3 different species of zebra.
- They can run up to 65 mph.
- The babies can walk 20 minutes after birth.

NILE CROCODILE

- They live 70-100 years.
- They are very dangerous, killing a couple hundred people each year.
- They have 25-80 eggs at a time.