Rules and Regulations

1. Once you have applied and been approved as a PPD vendor, you will be mailed/emailed a letter of approval, and you must use this to attain your special event permit. You cannot get a permit without first applying and being approved as a vendor. All vendors must possess a special event permit. Proof of approved permit must be mailed or emailed to Greater New Orleans Pagan Pride by Oct. 24th, 2017 (see address below). Permits can be obtained at the One Stop Shop (1300 Perdido St., 7th Floor). No vending will be allowed without a special event permit, and no refunds of vending fees after October 24th.
2. Setup begins at 8:30am. All booth spaces must be occupied until at least 5pm.
3. Specific setup areas will be assigned. Requests for particular areas for special needs will be reviewed, and will take priority over other requests; nothing is guaranteed.
4. The Pagan Pride Day schedule, all important contacts, and a map of the Pagan Pride Day area will be provided to all vendors within three days of the event.
5. No sexually explicit or dangerous items can be in view of the public; however, items can be kept hidden from view and produced once someone has inquired about them. Signs indicating adult items may be placed on the table.
6. Vendors who would like to offer demonstrations of their products are asked to include a separate page description so we can review and add it to the event's schedule.
7. Any vendors engaging in any illegal activity, consumption of illegal drugs, or harassment of people will be asked to leave or escorted from property by police.

9. No refunds after October 24th, 2017. Refund requests must be submitted in writing to the address listed below (no phone calls).
10. This year, we are not instituting category limitations.
11. Please let us know if any of your items (or all of them) are particularly fragile.
12. It will be EXTREMELY helpful for you to prepare a variety of products at varying price points for sale. Many of our past vendors have been unsuccessful due to a lack of variety.

I have read and understand the rules of conduct for this event. I agree to be responsible for all employees, agents & activities in my booth. Violation of these rules of conduct can result in my expulsion from this event. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Greater New Orleans Pagan Pride Project and all the sponsors for any loss I, my agents, or business might suffer as a result of our participation in this event.
