

Comments from Directions Previous Participants:

"The diploma awakes a myriad of emotions – all of them heartening. I have met fascinating people and explored stimulating topics, read challenging books and disagreed with myself and others; it has been a real journey, but one we have made together."

"Drumalis is a special, special place and the Diploma in Pastoral Theology has been life changing and life giving in equal measure. The module content and those who have delivered each one have been inspirational. I can't speak highly enough of this programme."

"In addition to the stimulating lectures and discussions, there is a strong sense of pastoral support from both fellow students and those who lead the course. I believe that anyone engaged in formal or informal ministry in a parish would benefit from this course since it encourages the participants to be self-aware, develop understanding of the community and the Church, and how they minister to others."

"As one of the older members of the group (the age range is 30+ - 70+), I hoped that I would have the energy to complete the course; however, far from it being a drain on my energy, I found it energising - I am delighted that I decided to do it."

Diploma in Pastoral Theology

Validated by St. Patrick's Pontifical College, Maynooth

Two-year part-time course Next in-take September

The course will take you on a journey into the discipline of pastoral theology, where theology is applied to ministry. As well as the academic texts on which the course is based, your own life experience will be a valuable text book which you bring to the programme.

Just as Jesus called disciples who were ordinary people, each with their own gifts and limitations, you too will bring your whole self to this programme – and each person you meet in the two years ahead will be enriched by you as you will be by them.

We are in a transition time between the relative security and certainties of past times and discovering what the Spirit wants of the Church in Ireland today and tomorrow. It will be impossible for us to hold on to the ways we lived parish in the past. The parishes of tomorrow will be 'communities of intentional disciples' sustained by committed and formed lay people.
