

PRESS RELEASE

January 3rd, 2017---The National Advocates organization is pleased to announce that Mr. Joseph Caraccio has been selected for inclusion into its Immigration Law specialty, an honor given to only a select group of lawyers as recognition of their superior skills and qualifications in the field. The selection for this exclusive list is limited to only 40 attorneys, under the age of 40, per state who have demonstrated their extraordinary abilities with superior results, a high level of peer respect and client satisfaction.

The National Advocates is a professional organization comprised of premier lawyers from across the country who have demonstrated exceptional qualifications in their area of the law, including Matrimonial and Family Law, Employment Law, Social Security Disability Law, Immigration Law, Bankruptcy Law and Estates, Wills and Trusts. The National Advocates provides accreditation to these distinguished attorneys, and provides essential legal news, information, and education to trial lawyers across the United States.

With the selection for membership by The National Advocates, Mr. Caraccio has exemplified superior qualifications, leadership skills, and case results as a legal professional. The selection process for this elite honor is based on a multi-phase process which includes peer nominations combined with third party research. As The National Advocates is an essential source of networking and information for trial attorneys throughout the nation, the final result of the selection process is a credible and comprehensive list of the lawyers chosen to represent their state.
