

Application for Fresh Expressions Micro-Grants

Along with the following application, please provide a letter of support from a pastor at your church or your District Superintendent.

Don't have a pastor or District Superintendent to support your project? That's fine! Contact the Fresh Expressions FL Team at freshexpressionsfl@gmail.com before submitting your application, and we will connect you with a learning partner.

Name:

Phone:

Email:

Date of application:

Name of Fresh Expression project:

Name of local church and pastor:

Have you or any of your team members attended a past Fresh Expressions event? If so, please share which event(s) you have attended (Spark Day, Vision Day, District Training, Annual Conference FX Event, Dinner Church Training, Brian McLaren Spiritual Innovation Event, Church Workshop). Please note that all grant recipients who have not been to a previous training event will be expected to attend a training within six months of award notification.

Please describe your vision for your project and how it is a Fresh Expression of the church:

- How many people do you believe this project has the potential to impact?
- How will this Fresh Expression form Christian community?
- How will you measure "success?"
- If this group is already existing, share how long you have been meeting and a little bit about where your group is at currently.

Please describe the group of people you believe you will reach with your Fresh Expression (i.e. Retirees, boaters, bikers, young entrepreneurs, youth, migrant workers, etc.)

Who is involved in this project with you?

What kind of “team” or “supporters” have you developed?

What is your projected timeline?

- How will you get started?
- Where do you hope to be in 3 months, 6 months, 1 year?

Micro-grants of $100 to $1,500 are available.

- How will you utilize those funds?
- What other resources do you have?
- What resources will you need to sustain your Fresh Expression?

Please share other experiences you have had starting/leading the formation of something new?

What potential obstacles do you foresee?

How do you see this Fresh Expression developing into leading group members towards discipleship in Jesus?

*Please email completed applications to freshexpressionsfl@gmail.com.
Applications are due February 28, 2019. Incomplete forms will not be considered.*