Dani is known for her hilarious impersonations, razor-sharp standup comedy, and her "girl next door" personality. Dani has been making people laugh her entire life...and working in standup and sketch comedy for the last twelve years. Dani had an interesting start. She began her career making people laugh while speaking at funerals for several residents of an assisted living facility where she worked as an activity director. Now, Dani can be seen nationally in theaters, private events and comedy clubs.
