TITLE 6 - Public Law 116-01

CITIZENSHIP & EXPATRIATION

CHAPTER 1

In Accord With The Constitution And Laws For The United States of America Republic, The Following Shall Apply:

SECTION 1. THE ACT OF REPATRIATION

(a) This State shall have the power of repatriation; the repatriation of coloreds, negroes, black, afro-Americans and African-Americans back to the divine creed of their forefathers; Back to Statehood, back to the Constitutional fold of this free National Government; Back to being Moors, Moorish Americans, Moorish Nationals, and National Citizens.

(b) All Nationals and Citizens of the United States of America Republic, upon taking the Oath of Allegiance to the United States of America Republic, shall be pardoned of all past crimes of colorable laws. The United States, or several states, shall not use such criminal records against a National or Citizen of the United States of America Republic. No pardon shall be given for capital crimes, murder, rape or treason.

(c) Expatriation shall be voluntary. No National or Citizen of this State shall be forced to Expatriate by the State. Expatriation as well as Repatriation is an Unalienable Right of each National or Citizen.

(d) This Amendment includes all Moorish Americans who have proclaimed their Nationality before or after the adoption of this Constitution; No paperwork needs to be filed; proclamation of Nationality begins when Nationality is stated; which can be verified by a phone call or writing by the Nation concerned.

SECTION 2 – CERTIFICATES OF NATIONALITY

The Secretary of State is authorized to issue and maintain, under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe, Certificates of Nationality to natural-born American nationals; and to its citizens who temporarily “reside” abroad or who intend temporarily to “reside” abroad for legitimate purposes, setting forth the place of their origin, date of birth, and place of permanent residence in the United States of America Republic. U.S.A.R. Secretary of State is also authorized to maintain a Registry of its Nationals and Citizens.

Nationality is conferred when any of the above in accord with the Constitution for the United States of America Republic listed above in section 1, and by performing any of the following acts with the intent to repatriate to the United States of America Republic (hereinafter “U.S.A.R.”):

- First. A proclamation of their Moorish American Nationality before or after the adoption of this Constitution; No paperwork needs to be filed; A proclamation of Nationality begins when Nationality is stated; which can be verified by a phone call or writing by the Nation concerned.
- Second. By signed “Application” and signed/sealed “State Oath” (oath of Allegiance) and the formal methods prescribed” by the regulations or rules issued by the U.S.A.R. Department of State.
- Third. Engaging in the service of U.S.A.R. and such service involves the taking of an “oath of allegiance”.
- Fourth. When he/she becomes domiciled (by birth) to parents whose ancestors are the descendants of Moroccans, born in America; and such domicile shall be assumed when he has resided in America or performed the Fifth action below with the intent to “nationalize”;
- Fifth. When abroad, upon or after the age of maturity (18 years old), by producing evidence of “birth” in America, at a U.S.A.R. Consulate or Embassy to a diplomatic or consular officer under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe. To overcome the presumption of expatriation, production of “competent” evidence is required.
- Sixth. Any person who shall have accomplished expatriation in the manner set forth in the preceding paragraphs shall, in order to re-acquire citizenship, be required to comply with the laws applicable to the nationalization of aliens. The exercise of the right of a Moorish American National or citizen to expatriate himself shall only be permitted or recognized in time of peace.

SECTION 3 - CERTIFICATES OF NATIVITY

The Secretary of State is authorized to issue, under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe, certificates of nativity to natural-born American nationals; and to its citizens who temporarily “reside” abroad or who intend temporarily to “reside” abroad for legitimate purposes, setting forth the place of their origin, date of birth, and place of permanent residence in the United States of America Republic; and

(a) That every child being a Moorish-American citizen resident abroad who desires to enjoy the protection of this Government be required upon reaching the age of 18 years to record at the most convenient United States of America Republic consulate his intention to become a resident and remain a citizen of the United States of America Republic, and to take the oath of allegiance upon attaining his/her majority; and

(c) That a citizen residing continuously outside of the United States of America Republic for more than one year be required to register at the most convenient United States of America Republic consulate at least once each year his/her name and place of residence, date and place of birth, nationality of parents, occupation, and last place of residence in the United States of America Republic, and to give solemn assurance of his continued allegiance to the United States of America Republic and of his intention to return thereto. An entry of the names, ages, and place of birth of the wife and minor children should also be required; and

(d) That the Secretary of State be authorized, under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe, to extend the protection of this Government and to issue qualified passports to those who have made the Declaration of Intention to become citizens of the United States of America Republic in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution, and who go abroad for brief sojourn, such protection and passports not to be effective in the country of the origin of the declarants.

SECTION 4. EXPATRIATION OF A U.S.A.R. CITIZEN:

(a) the passage of this act declaring that expatriation of a U.S.A.R. citizen may be assumed:

First. When he obtains naturalization in a foreign state.

Second. When he engages in the service of a foreign state and such service involves the taking of an oath of allegiance to such state.

Third. When he becomes domiciled in a foreign state, and such domicile shall be assumed when he has resided in a foreign state for five years without intent to return to U.S.A.R.; but a U.S.A.R. citizen residing in a foreign state may overcome the presumption of expatriation by competent evidence produced to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States of America Republic under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe.

Fourth. Any person who shall have accomplished expatriation in the manner set forth in the preceding paragraphs shall, in order to reacquire citizenship, be required to comply with the laws applicable to aliens. [see Public Law 118-01].

Fifth. The exercise of the right of a Moorish American National or citizen to expatriate himself shall only be permitted or recognized in time of peace. This may be accomplished by formal resignation of position by formal letter to rescind oath of office and destroy all relevant files for said National or citizen. Expatriation may also be accomplished by formal letter stating the willful intent to expatriate U.S.A.R. and no longer be a National or citizen thereof; and to destroy all relevant files associated with expatriate. Said performance of act shall be transmitted by formal letter via U.S. Post (via certified mail w/signature card) or electronically (via email) to the USAR Administration. Said formal letter shall be followed by, in return, a “Letter of Resignation” or “Letter of Recall” issued by U.S.A.R. Administration for signature of expatriate, to be returned to U.S.A.R. at the location specified.

- (b) That a Moorish woman who marries a foreigner may elect not to take, during coverture, the nationality of her husband; however, if she so decides, may upon termination of the marital relation by death or absolute divorce, revert to her citizenship by registering within one year as a U.S.A.R. citizen at the most convenient consulate, or by returning to reside in one of the Provinces of U.S.A.R., if she is abroad; if she is in the Provinces of U.S.A.R., by continuing to reside therein.
- (c) That a foreign woman who acquires U.S.A.R. citizenship by marriage to a Moorish-American, shall be assumed to retain her citizenship upon termination, by death or absolute divorce, of the marital relation, if she continues to reside in the United States of America Republic, unless she makes formal renunciation of such citizenship before a U.S.A.R. court; and if she proceeds abroad she may continue her U.S.A.R. citizenship by registering, within one year, as a citizen before the most convenient consulate.
- (d) A minor and nonresident child born without the United States of America Republic, to alien and nonresident parents shall be deemed a citizen of the United States of America Republic by virtue of the nationalization of the parent, provided, however, that such nationalization take place during the minority of such child, and provided further, that the citizenship of such minor child shall date from the entry of such minor into the United States of America Republic permanently to reside therein.

SECTION 5: PASSPORTS:

(a) That in order to prevent the abuse of U.S.A.R. passports in foreign countries, it be ordered that, in the future all passports shall be issued only by U.S.A.R.'s Department of State, to be valid for ten years, and subject to a single extension for two years longer by diplomatic and certain consular officers of the United States of America Republic; but that in order to provide for cases of emergency diplomatic and certain consular officers of the United States of America Republic be authorized to issue under prescribed regulations provisional passports for a particular journey or occasion, and limited in the length of time of their validity to not more than six months.

(b) That for the purpose of meeting the demands of the local authorities in foreign countries U.S.A.R. citizens who have registered in accordance with the law as heretofore recommended be furnished, under departmental regulations, with a statement to the effect that they are so registered, and that complete lists of U.S.A.R. citizens thus registered be reported to the Department of State every three months.

(c) That the diplomatic officers of the United States of America Republic be instructed to open negotiations with the governments to which they are accredited extending and perfecting the treaty relations with respect to the rights of U.S.A.R. nationals/citizens in order to secure their rights and privileges in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of U.S.A.R.

– Same Force And Effect

[see P.L. #112.03, Section 2. Additional Documents – Same Force And Effect]

The following documents shall have the same force and effect as proof of United States of America Republic citizenship as “certificates of nationalization” or of citizenship issued by the U.S.A.R. Attorney General or by a U.S.A.R. court having Nationalization jurisdiction:

(1) A passport, during its period of validity (if such period is the maximum period authorized by law), issued by the Secretary of State to a citizen of the United States.
[see Title 6, P.L. #112-02 Ch. 1 – Passports]

(2) The report, designated as a “Report of Birth Abroad of a Citizen of the United States of America Republic”, issued by a consular officer to document a citizen born abroad. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “consular officer” includes any United States citizen employee of the Department of State who is designated by the U.S.A.R. Secretary of State to adjudicate nationality abroad pursuant to such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe.

[End of Resolution]
