JUROR

CHRISTINA KEE

A New York based artist, art writer and curator, Ms. Kee is currently working with The William Louis-Dreyfus Foundation. She has been a contributor to artcritical and Hyperallergic, and written catalog essays for emerging and established artists including Jack Bush, Karlis Rekevics and Esteban Vicente. She recently contributed an essay to “As in Nature: Helen Frankenthaler Paintings,” accompanying an exhibition at the Clark Art Institute, and is currently working on an essay of Graham Nickson’s work. She has been a frequent moderator for the New York Studio School Evening Lecture Series and appeared as a speaker on the National Academy’s artcritical Review Panel.

SUBMISSION FORMAT

Submit up to 4 items at the Smarter Entry site. (Up to 3 images per item at 72 dpi resolution.)

Artists whose work is selected will be expected to send a hi-res image for inclusion in promotional materials.

All images must have different titles or numbers and should begin with the artist’s last name.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR ACCEPTED WORK

All work must be for sale. Garrison Art Center will retain 50% of the sale price. The Art Center is not responsible for the loss or damage of works while in transit. Storage charges will apply for work not picked up by January 13, 2019, 5pm. The Art Center reserves the right to reproduce accepted photographs on our website and in any advertising associated with this exhibition. All work selected for exhibition must be framed, ready to hang per the stated framing requirements. Garrison Art Center will provide the opening reception, awards, marketing, and advertising for the exhibition. The Art Center has the right to refuse work which differs from the original submissions and selections by jurors, or work it considers pornographic or defamatory.

Shipping instructions will be emailed to accepted artists.

Submission of application & images indicates acceptance of conditions stated herein.
