

Spinner Books™

Battle of the Sexes™

RULES OF PLAY

For 2 or more players.

OBJECT

To be the first team to earn 15 points - and find out how much you really know about the opposite sex!

PLAYING THE GAME

- First things first: grab a pen and paper to keep track of your points.
- Divide players into two teams: men vs. women.
- Then men spin first to determine which sex will get to answer a set of questions. A set consists of three questions. (In other words, all the questions on the page!)
- If the spinner lands on the men only zone, a player from the women's team read the women the first set of questions from the women question section.
- If the spinner lands on the women only zone, a player from the men's team read the women the first set of questions from the women's questions section.
- If the spinner lands on the both sexes zone, a player from the women's team reads the men a set of questions from the men's question section.

Then a player from the men's team reads the women a set of questions from the women's question section.

- Teams earn one point for each questions answered correctly. (For example, if the men answer 2 questions right, they get 2 points. The maximum a team may earn in a given round is 3 points. Got it? Good!)
- Play now continues and the women take a spin.

WINNING THE GAME

The first team to earn 15 points wins the Battle of the Sexes- and the rights to gloat until the next game!
