Eddie was so friendly and approachable. Eddie kindly allowed our daughter to be his assistant, she and all the kids and adults were happy & engaged in everything he did. Wedding Breakfast

When talking and listening to couples we hear so many stressing about their seating plans. Worrying about sitting Uncle Frank next Rachel from the office, they've never meet before which can create an awkward silence around the table.

Your seating plan is no longer a problem.

Whether it is Uncle Frank or your 3-year old niece, your wedding guests will experience the impossible made possible in front of their eyes making amazing moments turn into memories of YOUR day, along side awesome reactions for your photographer to capture

With our Platinum we ensure every table get to experience a couple of tricks, giving you best value. The reassurance if food is slow coming out, guests do not get bored waiting. We will stay until every table has been visited. We do not put a 2 hour time limit with this package like most magicians and know your day may overrun.

L.Nicholas Over the moon Bride

We booked Eddie for our wedding while the room was being changed around!
This guy is perfect and interacts with adults and children at ease! He was fantastic!

The Wedding day lulls

As your loving and heartfelt speeches draw to a close and the wedding breakfast comes to an end there is a natural “lull” as your wedding day moves from formal dining to the Evening reception. The room is cleared and prepared for your evening reception, the wedding band or DJ is setting up.

Guests have little to do during this time to keep your wedding flowing. I walk around revitalising the guests removing any boredom or restlessness whilst they wait.

It's also a great time for the photographer to catch amazing reactions like these photos in the brochure taken at Colwick Hall, Swancar Farm, Shottle Hall and many more venues

Its quite popular for couples to book us for the lull and the first hour for the evening reception. Its a fantastic way to welcome the evening guests and instantly makes them a part of your wedding celebrations.

As the Happy Couple you should get some special tricks, leaving you with special mementos after all. It is only right that YOU get some Special Magic for your day.
