

The Role

The Dive Tender is responsible for the above-surface work of the Milfoil King, including the gathering of milfoil cut loose by divers, putting it into bags, and taking it to waste disposal sites. Tenders are key members of four-person teams that work together at one to two sites per day. Tenders are the most visible members of every team and are responsible for answering questions from customers and new prospects as well as monitoring the safety of divers.

Duties

- Gear Checklist
- Site preparation
- Answering questions from client on-site
- Floating on surface (w/ flotation aid) and collecting milfoil
- Cleaning of site
- Waste disposal
- Reminding divers to keep the daily record
- Day of dive records
- Construction of bottom barriers
- Placement of bottom barriers

Requirements

- First Aid/CPR trained (Basic course)
- Valid driver's Licence
- Physically fit to carry 40-80 lb bags of milfoil, potentially up stairs.
- Past customer service experience preferred
- Love for working outside in the sun
- Entrepreneurial

Please email resume to Info@milfoiling.com

