

Ripon High School

Daily Bulletin

Monday, March 9, 2020

Please stand for the pledge. Ready begin.....

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AND TO THE REPUBLIC FOR WHICH IT STANDS ONE NATION UNDER GOD
INDIVISIBLE WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!

- Hey RHS! This week we continue our Coin Wars competition! All money, including dollar bills, that goes into the jars goes to the owner of the jar. Upperclassmen who donate coins or dollars go into the red jars and underclassmen coins and dollars go into the white jars. Put your monies in your own jars to help a child's wish come true! Who will be the most giving? Juniors and Seniors or Freshmen and Sophomores?
- Attention Juniors - College Awareness is Thursday Night in the library at 6pm. Come listen on how to be prepared for senior year. This will include topics for 4 year, NCAA, and community college. See Mrs. Goudeau if you have any questions.
- Can you believe that's it's already been a full month since Valentine's Day? Did you want to send a candy gram to someone but didn't get the chance? Celebrate White Rose Day with Korean Culture Club by sending a candy gram with a white flower to any student or staff member! K-Club's White Rode Day table will be set up and selling during lunch starting today through Thursday. See you in front of the library!
- Students who signed up to take the PSAT test a reminder that the test is this Wednesday at 7:45 am in the North gym. Do not be late.
- Hey RHS – This weekend our JROTC drill team competed in the Ripon High Drill Competition. Our unarmed inspection, unarmed regulation, unarmed exhibition, armed regulation and armed color guard received 1st place. Our unarmed color guard and armed inspection and our armed exhibition received 2nd place. Ripon High also received the drill competition overall out of the 7 teams that competed. Congratulations to all of the teams that competed this weekend!
- SuperFans – the boys volleyball team plays at home this week and we will have drawings for prizes. Cheer them on and don't forget to check in for a chance to win.