

Ripon High School

Daily Bulletin

Wednesday, February 19, 2020

Please stand for the pledge. Ready begin.....

I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
AND TO THE REPUBLIC FOR WHICH IT STANDS ONE NATION UNDER GOD
INDIVISIBLE WITH LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL!

- Attention RHS students and staff, the library will be closed for testing through tomorrow, February 20th until after lunch each day. Please make any necessary adjustments to your schedule and we apologize for the inconvenience.
- The Third Annual Gallery of the Arts is February 27th from 6:00-8:00pm. Join us for a free night to revel in the fine arts of Ripon High. Are you an artist yourself? Submit your drawings, paintings, digital or other visual art to Mr. Bowers or Mrs. Mortensen by next week Wednesday to enter in our contest to win up to $50 in art supplies of your choice. Treat your eyes to Ripon High's gift to the world at the Gallery of the Arts!
- This Saturday, February 22nd is the Almond Blossom Diaper Derby! The Chamber is looking for 6 student volunteers to assist with the baby crawling race. They need help hanging signs, set up assistance and line judges during the race. If you are available on Saturday from 8:30am-11am they'd love to have your help! Come to the main office to sign up to volunteer. This is an easy way to earn volunteer hours if you need them!
- Boys Volleyball practice will start on Friday, February 21st in the north gym at 3:30pm. Come prepared to play. See you Friday at 3:30pm in the north gym.
- Hey RHS – This past weekend our JROTC drill team competed at the East Union drill competition. Armed Inspection won 1st place led by Paola Rosillo. Unarmed Inspection won 2nd place led by Bailey Gillihan and Color Guard won 2nd place led by Daniel Ochoa. Great job to all the teams that competed!
- Congratulations to the girls' basketball team for their 58-45 victory over Union Mine last night. They travel to Calaveras tomorrow night for the next playoff round.

Danny Hernandez was our free throw contest winner last night. Way to go!