

THE GREAT GATSBY

Chapter 7 (pages 120-136)

1. In finally laying eyes on Daisy's daughter, what does Gatsby start to realize? Does Daisy seem like a good mother?
2. "Her voice is full of money." What do you think is Gatsby's meaning behind this statement?
3. Contrast Tom and Gatsby's strategy to win Daisy's affections. What are Gatsby's mistakes? At what point does the conflict turn in Tom's favor? Why?
4. Why do you think Daisy had the affair with Gatsby in the first place? Why do you think she made the choice she did? Why won't she leave Tom?
5. Why is it significant that Nick is turning 30? What do we usually associate with being 30?
