Fast results Unlimited progress

For us at St. George's YOU are our priority the moment you contact us. We pride ourselves in providing a friendly, relaxed but very professional atmosphere and approach. Once we have answered all your questions about studying with us, we assess your level using our comprehensive test and ensure your individual needs and goals are integrated into our daily teaching. The learning environment we provide incorporates real scenarios of everyday life as well as professional work in all areas of the language study.

Our classes are small and friendly and your progress with us has no limits. We are here to provide you with a maximum return on your investment. Our advice and guidance has no boundaries and we always have time for you.

Our experienced teachers understand the importance of your personal goals and offer not only their professional teaching but also guidance in your further direction. The new teaching methods we use allow us to deliver excellent results in a very relaxed atmosphere with a maximum effect – and our excellent exam results and reviews from our past and returning clients speak out for themselves.

YOU are important to us We listen and we act

Most of our students choose to live with a host family whilst studying at St. George's. It is normal to feel anxious before coming to a new country so we encourage you to ask questions about the place and people who you will spend time with. To help you we send every client a 'storyline' about their host family. For us at

...And everything else you need...

YOUR unique experience

Worthing welcomes over 25 000 language students from all over the world every year. Its fantastic setting by the sea and proximity to London and Brighton provides an excellent location to study, travel and relax. Worthing with its population of more than 110 000 makes it exciting to socialise and have fun as well as being small enough to be safe. With a welcoming atmosphere and the warmest weather in the South of England Worthing makes a perfect holiday destination. The accommodation we provide is primarily within walking distance and there are regular buses and trains to take you to any places of interest. Towns like Arundel, Lewes and Chichester offer an old charm of England; and if you are in the mood for more cosmopolitan excitement and unique shopping then Brighton
