Blessing in Disguise

Apprentice / Trainee – up to 31 hours per week – immediate start

Blessing in Disguise children's charity welcomes job applications from passionate and hardworking team players who want to be part of their ever growing team.

Blessing in Disguise (BID) values their employees and provides them with the opportunities to grow within the company, opening many doors in the process.

If this job offer is what you've been looking for, give us a call and send us your CV and covering letter and you could be the newest addition to our fundraising team.

Your role as junior admin and tele-sales fundraiser is within a friendly fundraising office working alongside tele-sales executive fundraisers and general administrators and assisting in raising funds for children and young adults with life-limiting illnesses and disabilities so that they can provide free equipment, support and activities, enabling them to have the same opportunities in life as any other child or young adult.

Previous call centre or telephone fundraising experience would be an advantage but not essential as on the job training will be given. Duties will include general admin, sales calls and fundraising.

Successful self-motivated trainees / apprentices with excellent communication skills will be given on the job training and will work towards a business administration and customer services qualification.

Email us your CV and covering letter to: [BIDworkforus@gmail.com](mailto: BIDworkforus@gmail.com) or Post to: 6A Enterprise House, Wigan Enterprise Park, Seaman Way, Wigan. WN2 2LE.
