Trump Landslide of Historic Porportions

Thus ends the election and perhaps America itself. We are witnessing a wave-election unlike anything in recorded history. This victory has turned the entire country into Trump country. The polls were all wrong. People will be talking about this for centuries to come.

Harry: I'm retreating to a secret monastery high in the rocky mountains where I will be learning to kill people with only my mind--and math.

Clare: I'll be heading to Europe where progressivism is still valued. I can wear a burka to disguise my identity.

Nate: [Nursing wounds from his battle with Huffington Post rival Ryan Grim] Death to Video Drome--Long Live The New Flesh.

Carl: I haven't decided yet. Gonna lay low. Maybe see if I can make it down to one of the socialist paradise Latin American states. I hear from CNN that Venezuela is really nice this time of year.

Seth: Walk the earth, I think, telling conservatives that they should feel white guilt? Something like that.

Maggie: I've been offered a job with Brietbart. So long guys!

Julia: It's pretty much all over for socialism and communism in America. Who wants to live in a Great America. It'll be so smug. Gonna try to cross the border into Canada where at least they know how to apologize for their privilege.

California falls: For the first time since we've had red and blue states, California has gone red on a tide of Latino voters casting ballots against illegal immigration, guns, and drugs. For the first time Asian Americans have opted to Make America Great Again. Overwhelming victories for Trump. Riots reported on the Berkley campus.

A look at the scandals that influenced the vote

Which Scandals Did Exit Polling Say Were Most Important?

SCANDAL	WOMEN	LATINOS	BLACKS
Clinton emails	4	3	1
Clinton Satanic Pedophile Ring	4	1	2
Vince Foster allegations	2	2	0
Calling Mexicans Needy & 'Taco Bowls'	1	2	1
Travelgate	0	5	1

Hillary Concealing Brain Cancer	0	3	1
SCANDAL	WOMEN	LATINOS	BLACKS

We have seen Minnesota, a safe blue state, called for Trump now. Exit polling suggests this is because he exposed Obama's Terrorist-Import-Program which was brining in Somali known terrorists and using them to "surround" the white population. This is an incredible movement, folks.

We understand a last ditch #NeverTrump riot has been put down. Jonah Goldberg, pictured above, led a rag-tag group of Tru-Con bloggers and writers on an assault on Trump Tower. Writer and #NeverTrump activist Noah Rothman (Commentary Magazine) was apparently injured by the back-blast from a Soviet era RPG-7. The munition itself proved a dud, ricocheting harmlessly off the armored side of the gold-adorned skyscraper. Nathan Wurztel, a conservative YouTube celebrity was hit with shrapnel from a hand grenade. According to medics he suffered a 2 millimeter laceration on his smallest right toe and had to be removed from action.

Hillary Refuses To Concede Despite a landslide of historic margins, Hillary, holed up in her New York tower has vowed to fight on. We understand that her canceled "fireworks" were revealed by rogue FBI agents to be actual military mortars firing M982 Excalibur GPS guided 155mm cluster-munitions. Fortunately the weapons have been confiscated and destroyed.

MAGGIE KOERTH-BAKER 10:46 PM

Nevada has been called for Donald Trump making his sweep nearly complete. Apparently the Latino vote did turn out--but voted in favor of the job creator who gives them employment and whom they adore. John Ralston of Ralston Reports was caught trying to board a plane for Europe with a suitcase stuffed with 11 million dollars and a thank-you note from George Soros.

CHRISTIANNA SILVA, WILL STRIMLING 10:46 PM

We understand that Wisconsin has been called for Donald Trump. Speaker of the House Paul Ryan has been stopped at the Canadian border, fleeing with thousands of documents detailing plans to overthrow the House

Freedom Caucus and work "Hand In Glove" with Hillary Clinton and Nancy Pelosi.

HARRY ENTEN 10:46 PM

Florida was a huge surprise. All that early voting and it seems that Cuban voters who understood what communism really is managed to wrest the vote from Clinton. These "patriots" are standing firmly against the seizure of the means of production by the workers and the installation of a crony communist figure such as the Left's beloved Castro. Florida may have gone permanently red.

NATE SILVER 10:43 PM

Down on the street, Ryan Grim stands there, calling me out like Achilles at the walls of Troy. I will go down and do battle with him. I will defeat him--destroy him--and devour his tiny brains. Our model will reign supreme. Our methods will triumph. We will crush the other so-called mathematicians and hear the wailing of their women.

I don my armor. I go to battle.

SETH MASKET 10:43 PM

Nate Silver is in a twitter war with Huffington Posts' Ryan Grim. The dude is losing it. I'm kind of afraid. Oh, North Carolina is called for Trump. Apparently the closing of polling places just reduced Trump's final numbers as African American voters struggggled and traveled hundreds of miles just to cast a ballot for Donald Trump. Who could have predicted?

JULIA AZARI 10:42 PM

Rockstar and Trump Campaign Surrogate Ted Nugent has been named Secretary of Defense by the Trump Transition team. Appearing before the press, Secretary Nugent said "Those [bleeping] [bleeping] mother[bleepers] are never the [bleep] going to know what [bleeping] [bleep] the [bleep] hit them. You want to see some grabbing by [bleep]? We're going to grab them by the [bleeping] [bleep] and [bleep] the [bleep] out of them." When asked if he meant ISIS, he seemed confused. "No," said Nugent. "I'm pretty sure I meant The Jews."

CARL BIALIK 10:40 PM

We are hearing that with Vermont, Maryland, and Connecticut called for Donald Trump, there are even Canadian towns close to the border that are requesting that President Elect Trump make THEM great again as well. "Mr. Trump, please make ALL of North America Great Again," their letter read. Trump has apparently negotiated a deal with an outraged (but cowed due to Trump's alpha dog demeanor) Prime Minister Trudeau to "take the canucks" off his hands in exchange for the valuable Calgary Oil Sands.
