“NO TURNING BACK”

- Chinese-Americans reflect on their evolving identities in the United States, from their experiences as objects of suspicion and contempt during the Cold War in the 1950’s to asserting their rights as citizens during the civil rights movement of the 1960’s.
- Looking towards the future, young Chinese offer their thoughts on what it means to be Chinese-American today.

“THE GREEN BOOK”

- Starring Viggo Mortensen and Mahershala Ali.
- New York City bouncer, Tony Lip, is hired by Dr. Don Shirley, an eccentric African-American pianist to be his driver for his eight-week concert tour through the Midwest and Deep South.
- Don’s record company gives Tony a copy of the GREEN BOOK, a guide for African-American travellers to find hotel accommodation and restaurants that will serve black people.
- Confronted with racism, danger as well as unexpected humanity and humour – they are forced to set aside differences to survive and thrive on the journey of a lifetime.
