	Whether it's Ranger, Blood Nut, Bluey or simply just Red, the endless nicknames have made you lot a resilient bunch! You're larrikins to boot and you should wear your dry sense of humour as a badge of honour.	She might not pack a punch like the rest of the family but Shazza's character is unmissable. A sessionable ale that's milder on the palate yet still retains well-rounded flavour.	Digga's Pale Ale is brewed with a unique blend of hops and a fruity yeast to give it a spicy yet nostalgic flavour. Just like Digga, this beer has the taste and character of a bygone era.	Our milder variety of hops will leave behind a slight bitter taste, but we promise it'll be nothing like what a New South Welshman experiences after frequent losses. You can't lose with Fat Man!	Is it roasted malt? Is it chocolate? Is it smooth? Or is it sweet? Yes! It's all of this and more! Just like a chocolate milkshake only better!	He's the lesser known cousin of Phar Lap whose name is generally muttered in frustration rather than associated with fine lineage & winning races. Phar Que's a dark horse & this beer, his legacy, is dark in colour but sweet in nature!
