The screenshot shows the Accredo website's 'Product demo' page. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for Home, Why Accredo?, Products, Case studies, About, Blog, Support & downloads, Find a Partner, and Contact us. A search bar is also present. The main heading is 'Product demo'. Below this, there is a section for downloading demo installers for Accredo Saturn and Accredo Mercury. Two columns of download links are provided, one for Saturn Demo and one for Mercury Demo. Each link includes the release version (4.0.10.123), the date (01/11/2016), and the file size (38.7 Mb for Saturn, 35.9 Mb for Mercury). Below these, there is a section for '64bit Versions' with similar download links (40.1 Mb for Saturn, 37.3 Mb for Mercury). To the right, there are two informational sections: 'Two key Accredo strengths' and 'Want to know more?'. The 'Want to know more?' section includes a link to an online form.
